William James Fisher (#3) and his nephew Samuel Fisher (#17) both emigrated from New Hampshire to Truro, William in 1762, Samuel in 1767 with his half-sister Janet (Fisher) Archibald. Their families established some of the original pioneering families in both the Stewiacke and Musquodoboit Valley's.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

First Generation

1. James Fisher, son of James Fisher (1611-) & Elizabeth (abt 1611-). Born in 1636 in Glen of Antrim, Ireland. James died in Londonderry, Ireland. Occupation: Weaver of Fine Irish Linen. Religion: Saint Columb's Church of Ireland, Londonderry. Residence: Queen St. (Now Bishop St.), Londonderry, Ireland.

James' father came from Ayrshire Scotland to Glen of Antrim, Ireland.

Baptismal dates of James and Jennet Fisher's 12 children from Saint Columb's Church of Ireland Cathedral, Londonderry, in the following order:

Child's Name	Baptismal Date
Elizabeth	10 September 1661
John	24 October 1662
Kathren	09 October 1663
James	22 November 1664
Margrat	08 September 1665
Mary	04 December 1666
William	04 December 1666
Samuel	23 February 1668
Rebeca	30 May 1669
James	06 August 1670
Mathew	20 June 1671
John	06 December 1675

It is interesting to note that there are two Johns and two James. We are reasonably assured that the father of William James and (Deacon) Samuel, John Fisher, was the youngest child of James and Jennet. I can only assume that the older John and James may have died young. From the Hearth Money Rolls of 1663, a tax for every hearth or fireplace in Londonderry at the time, James Fisher is recorded as living on Queen Street, which is now known as Bishop Street, not far from the church which recorded his children's baptisms.

4. (Deacon) Samuel Fisher (John², James¹). Born on 24 May 1722 in Londonderry, Ireland. Deacon Samuel died in Londonderry, NH, on 10 Apr 1806; he was 83. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Londonderry. Residence: Roxbury, MA (1740), Londonderry, NH (ca1742). Occupation: Linen Weaver, Farmer.

Deacon Samuel Fisher was born in the North of Ireland, of Scottish descent. His father was a weaver. He came to America in 1740, aged 19. The ship in which he came was usually spoken of as the "Starved ship". The vessel was so scantily supplied with provisions that, long before the voyage was completed, one pint of oatmeal for each individual on board, and a proportionate allowance of water, was all that remained. Mr. Fisher once went to the mate with a tablespoon to obtain some water, which was refused him, there being but two-thirds of a bottle-ful on board. Mr. Fisher's customs was to take a spoonful of meal and having moistened it with salt water, to eat it raw. The passengers and crew, having subsisted in this manner for 14 days, were at length reduced to the necessity of eating the bodies of those who died. Even this resource failed them; and at length, Mr. Fisher was selected to give up his life to preserve the lives of the rest. Providentially, however, a vessel hove in sight; and their signals of distress being observed, they obtained relief, and he was saved. So deep an impression did the horrors of that passage make upon the mind of Mr. Fisher that, in after life, he could never see, without pain, the least morsel of food wasted, or a pail of water thrown on the ground carelessly.

On his arrival in this country, he was bound by the Captain to a man in Roxbury for the payment of his passage. He came to Londonderry, NH, about one or two years after, and became a member of the family of Mr. Matthew Taylor, whose daughter Sarah he married when he was 25 years of age. He was made ruling elder in the church in this place during the ministry of the Rev. David McGregor, and remained in this office until he was no longer able to perform its duties on account of his age. He was well instructed in the great principles of the gospel. He had a most happy faculty of improving the occurrences which took place about him for the religious instruction of his family. Mr. Fisher was married three times, and had twelve children, eleven of whom arrived at adult age and ten of whom survived him. Ten of his children were married and most lived to an advanced age. The average age of 4 of them was 91 years. His descendants, in the year 1850, were nine hundred and fifteen, and are scattered through nearly all the States of the Union, through Nova Scotia and Canada. Some of them are ministers and some elders in the Church. It is estimated that three fourths of those over twenty years of age are professors of religion.

The order of the wives of Deacon Samuel Fisher has been a source of much confusion. First Thomas Miller, then Margaret Janet Hart, in her book about Janet Fisher Archibald, had erroneous information. Gerry Byers, in his Fisher Chapter, makes a very convincing argument that the order of the first two from Hart's book was wrong. Jane Wile, in her Fisher Genealogy, 2000, confirms Byers order and provides numerous details. I have followed Jane's information.

On 24 Jun 1745 when Deacon Samuel was 23, he first married Sarah (Agnes) Taylor, daughter of Matthew Taylor (1690-22 Jan 1770) & Janet Wilson, in Londonderry, NH. Born on 6 Mar 1726 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Sarah (Agnes) died in Londonderry, NH, on 17 Apr 1747; she was 21. Buried in Londonderry Shipley Cemetery.

They had one child:

- i. Agnes (Nancy). Born on 17 Apr 1747 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Agnes (Nancy) died on 19 Feb 1837; she was 89.

Ca 1765 when Agnes (Nancy) was 17, she first married William Cunningham. William died in 1777.

Ca 1779 when Agnes (Nancy) was 31, she second married David Ella. Born on 24 Jan 1759. David died in Londonderry, NH, on 19 Feb 1823; he was 64.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

On 29 Jul 1747 when Deacon Samuel was 25, he second married Agnes Wilson, daughter of James Wilson & Jenat Taggart, in Londonderry, NH. Born on 7 Aug 1728 in Londonderry, NH. Agnes died in Londonderry, NH, on 12 Mar 1755; she was 26. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Londerry.

On 15 Feb 1756 when Deacon Samuel was 33, he third married Sarah Barber/Barbour. Born on 26 May 1732 in An Bóthar Buí, Meath, Leinster, Ireland (?). Sarah died in Londonderry, NH, on 3 Feb 1813; she was 80. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Londonderry.

From Gerry Byers, Truro, June 15, 1999, "probably daughter of Robert and Sarah (Bean) Barber of Epping, NH." Robert is s/o Robert, of John.

According to the Sprague database, Sarah was born An Bóthar Buí, Meath, Leinster, Ireland - that is referenced to Helen Gibson. If so, she may not have been from a New England Barber family.

They had the following children:

- i. Mary. Born on 6 May 1757 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Mary died in Maine, Broome Co., NY, in 1827; she was 69.

Margaret married George Farnell. Born in 1759 in Yorkshire, England.

From Musquodoboit Valley Bicentennial Notes:

George Farnell was born in Northern England, Yorkshire, in 1759. While still in his teen he enlisted in the British Army and fought in the American Revolution. After the Peace of 1785 he came to Halifax, N.S. He settled in the Musquodoboit Valley in the early 1800's and married Margaret Fisher. They first camped on a site over-looking the Valley above the present day home of Ronald O. Connell (1982). In 1908 George Farnell applied for a grant of land which was on Black Hil (the hill and surrounding land in back of Mosher Limestone Quarry). There he cleared the land for farming and raised a family of twelve children.

From REID book (page 391):

George FARNELL was on the frigate "La Tribune" when it was wrecked off Halifax harbour in 1797. At that time the name was spelled PHARNELL.

From Musquodoboit Valley Bicentennial Notes:

(Pleasant Valley) He was born in 1759 and enlisted in his Majesty's 33rd Regiment of foot in 1778.

From Geroage H. Taylor's family history:

Among others I have heard him tell of old Mr. Farnell, who described to him some of his experinces in the American War of Independance. He was a soldier in Gen. Burgoyne's army, which had to surrender at Saratoga in 1777. Burgoyne had made his boost that if they gave him 10,000 good troops he would soon restore order in the colonies. Other British Generals were conducting the campaign, and continued to do so for some five years after Burgoyne was done. Mr. Farnell said they would start on a march on a road through the woods, with all their cannon and supplies, they would not go far when a few rifles would crack in the woods, and their teams would go down. They would have to go into the surrounding country and commander teams, giving script for them which assured the owners they would pay. They would get all ready and start again and perhaps it would not be two hours until the same thing happend again. Ultimately they had to surrender, and their general had to hand over his sword by the point to the victor. The soldiers where given their choice of three courses; — first, all who were willing could step into the Colonial ranks with there arms, and quite a number did so; second, they could be disarmed and let go where they wished, like tramps; third, they would be taken prisoner of war. Mr. Farnell prefered to be disarmed and go and he walked out of their country.

Upon one occasion while they were living in this lonely situation in the woods and the snow was very deep, Mrs. Whidden not being very well one morning he started and took his cattle with him to try and make a track in the snow, so that some person might get to his house to be with her; but he failed in getting a track made through the deep snow. He returned home at night much fatigued, when his wife presented him with two sons that had been born during the day."

They had the following children:

| | ii. | Mary. Born in 1810 in Greenfield, Col. Co., NS. Mary died in New Annan, NS, in May 1857; she was 47. |

There is some confusion surrounding Sarah and Mary Whidden. Miller says (as does Helen Whidden, likely from Miller), that Sarah married Ebenezer Upham. However, a marriage in Colchester County for Richard Upham, age 22, son of Eben and Mary (Whiddsen), resident of Tatamagouche, married 2 March 1865 to Lucy Patriquin, age 20, daughter of A and M (MacBurnie), also a resident of Tatamagouche, suggests otherwise. Jerry McCombie also provided family evidence that Sarah Whidden, daughter of Eddie, b. 1816 Onslow, NS, m. 1841 in Pictou William John McCombie (d. 1904). Neither Miller nor Helen Whidden have any information on Mary. Thus, it appears that Miller confused Mary for Sarah in his account.

In 1828 when Mary was 18, she married Ebenezer Upham, son of Richard Upham (1758-Oct 1825) & Mary Ann Cock (1759-Mar 1842). Born in Mar 1797. Residence: New Annan, NS.

132a. The Family of Charles Cox and Sarah (Pond) Fisher of St. Mary's.

<http://www.fisher.familyheritage.ca/otherfishers.html>

Charles Cox Fisher was born in Nova Scotia about 1814 of Scottish ancestry and first came to New Brunswick in 1836. He was part of the large Fisher family in the Truro area of Nova Scotia, descended from William Fisher (1716-1777) who emigrated from Londonderry, Ireland to New Hampshire but later settled in Truro in 1762.

Charles Cox Fisher married Sarah E. Pond 14 December 1843, in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church at Fredericton. She was born 1 December 1823, and died 7 January 1904. Charles Fisher died 20 June 1879, in Marysville, York County. They were buried in the Methodist Cemetery on Canada Street in Marysville, now part of Fredericton.

Charles Cox Fisher was a farmer in St. Mary's Parish. Later, his farm became part of the town of Marysville when it was created. He was a Presbyterian but the rest of the family was Methodist. Disease must have struck the family in 1854 and 1859, in both years two family members died within a few days of one another. One of these deaths was Johanna Fisher, who died 17 September 1854, age 19 or 21. She was too old to have been a daughter of Sarah (Pond) Fisher but was buried in the family plot. She may have been a younger sister of Charles Cox Fisher or a child from a previous marriage.

Elizabeth Augusta (Magee) Fisher died 21 November 1928. They were buried in the Methodist Cemetery in Marysville with their infant daughter. Charles Frederick Fisher was a farmer in Marysville. He was a Methodist but the family was Baptist. In 1901 his mother and his mother-in-law both lived with the family. Before his marriage he was involved in a fatal accident. While skating on the Nashwaak River near Gibson's mill dam on 8 December 1873, he and Henrietta Clayton "skated into an open air hole". She drowned but he was saved.

His first wife, Henrietta Howell, had died 8 Sep 1871, age 25, and was buried in the Old Burying Ground with Edward's parents and their infant son William Arthur. There is some confusion surrounding Sarah and Mary Whidden. Miller says (as does Helen Whidden, likely from Miller), that Sarah married Ebenezer Upham. However, a marriage in Colchester County for Richard Upham, age 22, son of Eben and Mary (Whiddden), resident of Tatamagouche, married 2 March 1865 to Lucy Patriquin, age 20, daughter of A and M (MacBurnie), also a resident of Tatamagouche, suggests otherwise. Jerry McCombie also provided family evidence that Sarah Whidden, daughter of Eddie, b. 1816 Onslow, NS, m. 1841 in Pictou William John McCombie (d. 1904). Neither Miller nor Helen Whidden have any information on Mary. Thus, it appears that Miller confused Mary for Sarah in his account.

In 1841 when Sarah was 24, she married William John McCombie in Pictou, NS. Born on 17 Feb 1820 in Pictou, Miss Helen Whidden in "Whidden Family of Nova Scotia" reported a 9th child, Minnie, 1868-1954, married William Spencer and lived in the USA. However, she is not found in any of the primary records, including census and bmd (NS Historical Vital Statistics), nor is there a Minnie Whidden married to a William Spencer in any of the Spencer records, so we can assume that must have been an error.

On 20 Nov 1854 when Matthew was 29, he married Sarah Roode, daughter of Jabish Roode (9 Oct 1794-23 Dec 1869) & Hannah Cutten Staples (15 Dec 1795-6 May 1875), in Onslow, NS. Born on 14 Nov 1827 in Belmont, Col. Co., NS. Sarah died in Belmont, Col. Co., NS, on 30 Jan 1903; she was 75.

I cannot confirm who is parents are, so I have put him with Ephraim and Mary Tupper so I don't lose track of him. It would make sense that if he died young and left a young family that he could be buried in his grandparents plot.

Lillian and Reuben were married by Rev. Deward Grant at the manse in Upper Stewiacke. They moved to Woodside to a small farm where they lived their entire life. The first year of their marriage, they lived in the kitchen of their home. The remainder of the house was built the next summer and the barn in 1891. Reuben learned the blacksmith trade from Dan Ross whose home was on the opposite side of the road. A few years later, thirteen acres was added to the farm grandfather bought from Sam Johnson owned by his father William Johnson of Newton Mills. In the home which still stands today but vacant (recorded in the late '70's) there is a hard covered bible (leather cover) belonging to Uncle Gus Dean (1894-1974). This bible was given to him as a young man while working for John Dean during haying. It is over one hundred years old (both old and new testaments) and after each chapter there is a sermon. It is a large bible. An operation for ruptured appendix was performed in this house on the kitchen table. The table is still there. Uncle Gus was the patient and was very sick. A trained nurse (Margaret MacLeod) who died overseas took care of him. Doctors from Halifax did the operation. Lillian and Reuben were Presbyterian by faith and attended Dean Sharon Presbyterian Church. Lillian sang in the choir at the age of 14 and sang for many years. They celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1938. They are buried in the cemetery beside the Dean Church. (Kathryn Anne Allen-MacPherson, Saint John, NB)

life. The first year of their marriage, they lived in the kitchen of their home. The remainder of the house was built the next summer and the barn in 1891. Reuben learned the blacksmith trade from Dan Ross whose home was on the opposite side of the road. A few years later, thirteen acres was added to the farm grandfather bought from Sam Johnson owned by his father William Johnson of Newton Mills. In the home which still stands today but vacant (recorded in the late '70's) there is a hard covered bible (leather cover) belonging to Uncle Gus Dean (1894-1974). This bible was given to him as a young man while working for John Dean during haying. It is over one hundred years old (both old and new testaments) and after each chapter there is a sermon. It is a large bible. An operation for ruptured appendix was performed in this house on the kitchen table. The table is still there. Uncle Gus was the patient and was very sick. A trained nurse (Margaret MacLeod) who died overseas took care of him. Doctors from Halifax did the operation. Lillian and Reuben were Presbyterian by faith and attended Dean Sharon Presbyterian Church. Lillian sang in the choir at the age of 14 and sang for many years. They celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1938. They are buried in the cemetery beside the Dean Church. (Kathryn Anne Allen-MacPherson, Saint John, NB)

On 7 Oct 1850 when Ellen was 20, she married John Barnhill Dickie, son of Isaac Patton Dickie (19 Jun 1801-28 Feb 1858) & Rebecca Barnhill (10 Aug 1803-15 Jun 1847), in Middle Stewiacke, NS. Born on 30 Mar 1829 in Onslow, Col. Co., NS. John Barnhill died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 5 Jun 1886; he was 57. Occupation: Banker; Custodes Rotulorum, County of Colchester. Residence: Onslow.

DICKIE, JOHN BARNHILL, teacher, farmer, shipbuilder, and politician; b. 30 March 1829 at Cornwallis, N.S., eldest son of Isaac Patton Dickie and Rebecca Barnhill; m. first on 7 Oct. 1850 Ellen Putnam, and they had three children; m. secondly in 1858 Harriet Dickson, and they had eight children; d. 5 June 1886 at Truro, N.S. John Barnhill Dickie's ancestors had come from Londonderry (Northern Ireland) to Cumberland County, N.S., about 1763. John was educated at Canard and Wolfville, N.S., then from 1847 to 1851 at the Mount Allison Wesleyan Academy in Sackville, N.B., and finally at the Halifax Free Church College. While attending the Wesleyan academy, Dickie taught in a comfortable schoolhouse at Middle Stewiacke, N.S., giving instruction in book-keeping, surveying, mensuration, algebra, and Latin to an average of 30 students. He also ran a farm in Middle Stewiacke. Later he taught mathematics at the Halifax Academy.

In 1854 Dickie was appointed coroner for Colchester County. By 1856 he had moved to Onslow where he operated both a farm and a store. He served from 1858 to 1859 as treasurer for the poor in the district of Onslow, became a justice of the peace in 1861, and for a short time in 1863 was a militia major. In 1866 he was the founder and first president of the Onslow Agricultural Society, and was appointed custos rotulorum of Colchester and a trustee of school lands in Onslow in 1868. In 1871 Dickie moved to Truro where he had been named manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, the first financial institution in that village. Between 1872 and his death he also owned shares in six vessels built along the Minas Basin shore; one, the Colchester, was reputed to have been the fastest vessel ever launched in the Bay of Fundy. He formed the Truro Marine Insurance Company in 1872 to protect his investments.

In December 1874 Dickie was elected to the assembly as an independent member for Colchester County, although his political sympathies had generally been with the Liberals. The results of the election made it uncertain whether the Liberal government of William Annand could still command a majority in the assembly, and when on 11 March 1875 Dickie accepted Annand's offer of the speakership a furore resulted. For Annand, the appointment of Dickie eliminated a potential negative vote, and rumours persisted that Dickie had sold his principles for money, prestige, or the promise of a seat in the Legislative Council. One newspaper praised Dickie at this time as "sagacious, clear-headed and able," but another described his acceptance as corrupt and treacherous. His Colchester colleague, William Albert Patterson, who left the house rather than vote against his friend, was later to refer to "the sale of the Speakership,” and when Dickie was appointed to the Legislative Council three years later, the Colchester Sun labelled the appointment “The Last Act.”

Dickie lacked the parliamentary training essential to rule over an almost equally divided house. In trying to satisfy all, he satisfied none. On at least three occasions his actions or rulings caused violent controversy. When, on 30 April 1875, he broke a tie vote on an amendment to a railway bill, the opposition’s frustration exploded. For the first and only time in Canadian parliamentary history a resolution was carried by a vote of 20–12 requesting the speaker to resign, which he did the following day. “He had to listen to certain whereases, impeaching him of the high crimes of ignorance and incompetence, of drawing a salary under false pretences and filling a position given him as the price of treachery.” His inexperience condemned him: a correct ruling would have been that the fatal motion required 48 hours notice. The Toronto Mail observed that the incident was “peculiar to Nova Scotian politics which are indeed inscrutable and past finding out.”

Dickie retained his seat in the assembly until 1878, and from that year until his death sat in the Legislative Council. A quiet man, he never publicly commented upon the humiliating experience of 1875, and from his correspondence with his brother James there emerges a serene individual. An active Presbyterian, in his last years Dickie concentrated on his business and when he died of intestinal cancer in 1886 he left an estate in excess of $61,000. Her daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis, of town had been at her bedside for some time, faithfully nursing the much beloved mother in her last illness. Mrs. Tupper was 68 years of age. The funeral took place on the 6th inst., the Rev. Edwin Smith officiating. Internment was beside her late husband in the family lot in the Upper Stewiacke Cemetery. Mr. C.F. Cox of this town attended the funeral; his first wife was a daughter of the lamented Mrs. Tupper. - (Truro Daily News Saturday June 7, 1902)

On 10 Aug 1855 when Elizabeth was 21, she married Eliakim Tupper, son of Benjamin Tupper (14 May 1799-6 Jan 1880) & Mary Dunlap (14 Jan 1803-28 Nov 1891). Born in 1829. Eliakim died on 18 Dec 1894; he was 65.

Warden Tupper's Death - Col. Eliakim Tupper, Warden of Colchester County, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, L.M. Ellis, Queen Street, Truro. The death of Col. Tupper has come upon us all with a shock. It was so sudden and to most of our citizens so unexpected.

For some time the Warden had been suffering from severe pains from an injury to his abdomen, which latterly developed into an abscess on the wall of the abdomen, and which such serious symptoms that he left his home in Stewiacke and arrived in Truro on Monday the 10th inst., for medical treatment. There is no doubt but that the deceased contracted cold while journeying to Truro, and when he arrived here he was a very sick man. His physician, Dr. J. H. McKay, did all that medical skill could do, and had consultation with Dr. W.S. Muir on Sunday last. Both physicians agreed as to the nature of the disease and as to the very serious condition of the suffering man. Yesterday the Warden was about the same in his symptoms. He lingered through the night and this morning, as already stated, passed quietly away.

The immediate cause of death was an abscess on the wall of the abdomen resulting in peritonitis and blood poisoning. Inflammation of the bowels had set in and was another complication that baffled all medical skill.

By the death of Warden Tupper, Colchester County loses one of its ablest, shrewdest and most talented men. After the Municipal Incorporation Act was passed, Col. Tupper was the first Warden in Colchester. He at once showed his firm and lucid grasp of the new Act, and from his clear interpretation of its complicated provisions started the machinery running smoothly in the county.

The deceased was born 66 years ago on the farm at South Branch, Upper Stewiacke, where he has ever resided, and to a community in which he has ever been universally respected. He was Warden of this County at the time of his death.

The deceased has left a widow, one son Martin L., who resides on the homestead, and a daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis of this town. To them and other relatives the News extends heartfelt and sincere sympathy in their unexpected and sad bereavement.

It is expected that the remains will leave here on Thursday for the Presbyterian church in Upper Stewiacke Village, where the funeral service and ceremonies will take place at about 2 o'clock on that day. - (Truro Daily News - Tuesday Dec 18, 1894)

Warden Tupper's Funeral - An immense mass of people assembled at Upper Stewiacke Presbyterian Church,

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Warden Tupper. There was an immense congregation of friends from all parts of the Stewiacke Valley, and other places in the country. Among those present were: Councillors H. H. Eaton, Salmon River; Bigelow, Lower Stewiacke; McGill Johnson, Upper Stewiacke Village; and Charles Creelman; James McCurdy, Clifton, License Inspector; Hugh McKenzie, Municipal Clerk; Geo. R Archibald, Lower Stewiacke; John Dickie, Middle Stewiacke; W.D. Dimock, Truro, and many others. The funeral services were very impressive, and were conducted by the Rev'ds A. G. Gunn, S. F. Fraser and John Robbins. Mr Gunn gave an admirable address and Rev. John Robbins supplemented his remarks by a most touching figure to the memory of the late Colonel Tupper. After the services were over, friends passed around the bier and gave the last look of love on him who has been so universally respected by all. The death of Colonel Tupper has left a blank in this county that will be very hard to fill. All spoke of him with the greatest respect, feeling that the district of Stewiacke has lost a most valuable member of society, and the County of Colchester one of its ablest men. - (Truro Daily News - Friday Dec 21, 1894)

1976, Bermuda

On 15 Nov 1887 when David "Morrison" was 31, he married Elmira O. Webster, daughter of John Webster (18 Nov 1841-23 Jan 1919) & Elizabeth Jane Andrews (1849-17 Apr 1876), in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Born on 6 Aug 1870 in Otter Brook, Stewiacke. Elmira O. died in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS, on 9 Jan 1945; she was 74.

Mrs. Elmira Blaikie

Upper Stewiacke, January 11, 1945 - This community was saddened on Tuesday evening, January 9, when word came of the passing of Mrs. Elmira Blaikie, at the Colchester County Hospital, Truro, where she had been a patient since Christmas Day, when she was stricken with paralysis. Of this meek, gentle little woman, it can truly be said, "She lived in a house by the side of the road, and was a friend to all." The secret of her Christian character is contained in the following verse of a favorite hymn -

"Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine
Nor ever murmur, nor repine,
Content whatever lot I see
Since tis my God that leadeth me"

She was a faithful member of the WMS in which she took an active part, having been secretary for many years until her health prevented, and then, very reluctantly, taking a lesser place in the work of the Society, but always in her place at the meetings when health and weather permitted.

The United Church was filled today with those who came to honor one who served well her day and generation. The profusion of flowers were a mute but tangible testimony of the esteem in which Mrs. Blaikie was held in the community. Rev. Calder Fraser conducted the service, speaking very appropriately from the words "God is just." Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "He Leadeth Me", and "Sun of My Soul".

Mrs Blaikie was formerly Elmira Webster, and was born seventy-four years ago at Otter Brook. She lived the first twenty years of her married life in Burnside, where her husband, Morrison Blaikie, owned and operated a sawmill. Out of a family of seven sons and three daughters, those left to mourn the loss of a devoted mother are four sons and two daughters. Roy and Glenn of Blaikie Bros & Co., Upper Stewiacke, Harry, partner of Blaikie's Garage, Truro; and Morris, sawyer with Blaikie Bros.; Florence (Mrs Russell Boomer), and Edith (Mrs Raymond Boomer) of Red Deer, Alberta. There are also twenty-six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

The pall-bearers were Thomas and A.P. Fulton, Winfred Patterson and Frank B. Cox.

Interment took place in Riverside Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, who predeceased her thirty-six years ago, and two sons and a daughter in later years. One son, Alden, was killed in the Great War, in June, 1916.

The Archibald Family, by Marjorie (Archibald) Drew

My father, Edgar Archibald came to Rosedale in 1910 from Middle Musquodoboit, N.S. where he ran a general store and where all of us children were born. Heeding the call of the West, my two older brothers, Harry and Doug, had left Nova Scotia a couple of years previously and had persuaded Dad that the West was a land of opportunity, so in his middle age he pulled up stakes and came to B.C. His first location was Rosedale where he and the two sons purchased the store owned by Charles and Elgin Munro. Mother, my brothers, Earle (13), Don (1 year), and I, Marjorie (9), followed the next year by CPR. I still recall our awe at the wonderful scenery and the scary passes through the Rockies. We lived for some years in what was then known as the Christie house just north across the bridge on McGrath Road. In 1924, John Martin contracted to build my parent's new home at 51391 Yale Road. Reg Henderson has enjoyed living in this fine old home and has taken excellent care of the house and grounds for some years now, (1988). By that time Harry had moved to Grande Prairie, Alberta, and Doug to Columbus, Ohio. Earle and Don had taken their places in the store and Earle lived directly south of the store with his wife, Clara (Peterson). Dad died in 1939. Mother lived until she was 94 and passed away in 1959. Don, the youngest member of the family, succumbed to a fatal heart attack in 1963.

I had left Rosedale for good in 1924 when I married Roger Drew who was a rancher south of Kamloops where I taught school. Mother and Dad both loved the West and Rosedale, and I can still remember Mother extolling the beauty of the mountains and the beautiful sunsets reflected on the snowy peaks of Mt. Cheam and surrounding mountains. My parents continued with their former church interests. Dad served as Choir leader for many years and he and his enthusiastic group of members made beautiful music. That early choir included: Lou (Braithwaite) Ryder, Dot (Braithwaite) Boule, Mrs. Cornish

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

(Reg Henderson's mother), Mrs. MacAlpine, the Bennett sisters, Mr. Roddis, Reg Bryant and my mother and father. There were many other ones over the years but these I remember from my early times there. My sister, Ida (Archibald) Higgins had settled in Rosedale and was the church organist for several years, Mother taught the "True Blue" class of young people in the Sunday School years. We were a large, happy group. In her later years she taught the Senior Bible Class. In time, Earle sold out his interest in the store to Don, and he and Clara built a new home and Post Office right across the street from the store, where he served as Post-master until his retirement. Their only child, Ronald, was lost in one of the first large air raids over Europe. He had gone to England and enlisted in the RAF.

Rosedale has always had a very warm place in my heart and I have many happy memories of my early life there. I am now the sole survivor of our immediate family of six brothers and one sister. Several episodes stand out in my memories. On one occasion when Roger and I were visiting Mother and Dad, and late one night, or early a.m. the phone rang. It was Clara calling to tell the folks that the store was being broken into. Earle had heard the commotion in the back of the store which was right beside the home they occupied at that time. He grabbed two hand-guns and left to investigate. Clara had also phoned the police at Chilliwack, who came at once, but by the time they arrived, Earle had shot a hole through the windshield of the bandits' truck, and winged one of them. The robbers ran north and disappeared in the vicinity of the bridge with Earle in hot pursuit. For some time afterwards Earle was known as "Two-Gun-Archibald". I might add that this was the latest of several break-ins and Earle's patience had worn thin. Roger had gone down to the store and offered to accompany Staff-Sergeant King as they combed the territory trying to locate the thieves. The men finally ended up at the Chilliwack Police Headquarters and the men on duty there, seeing Roger in the police car with King said, "Oh, so you got one of them, eh!" That was a standing joke in the family and Roger never did live it down! Some time afterwards the criminals were apprehended and the police discovered quite a cache of stolen goods.

I wonder how many are left who remember the baseball team and the ball games against East Chilliwack, Hope, Agassiz and Chilliwack, at the ball diamond just east of the village. I was still in elementary school and I used to yell myself hoarse at those games. Rosedale had good players like Noble Ryder, Harry and Warren Cameron, Hughie Laughlin, the school teacher, Bert Thompson and Tommy Inions. I still watch baseball on T.V. but I do not get nearly as excited as I did in those days long ago in Rosedale.

EARLE AND CLARA ARCHIBALD by Laurie Anderson

Earle was the third son of the Edgar Archibald's. I remember Earle telling me of working on the construction of the Elementary school in 1914 and of working on the cupola when word was received of the First World War.

Earle enlisted and on his return, worked in the store with his father, later Don joined them. Earle married Clara Peterson. They lived in the house behind the store. They had one son Ronnie, who grew up in Rosedale, attending the Elementary School and Chilliwack High School. Ronnie joined the R.A.F. in 1939 and was killed in action in 1942. Through the efforts of the Rosedale Athletic Club, Mt. Archibald, west of Mt. Cheam, overlooking Rosedale, was named for Ronnie in 1985.

Earle followed in his father's footsteps and on his father's retirement as Post Master, a position he held from Sept. 4, 1919 to Nov. 29, 1939; Earl became Post Master on Dec. 6, 1939 until April 8, 1960. In 1940 Earle and Don built a new store on the site of the old store. In 1949 Don took complete ownership of the store and Earle continued as Post Master. A new home was built at 57279 Yale Rd. with the Post Office attached.

Both Earle and Clara were good community workers. Earle was interested in wood work, in their new home he did all the inside finishing of the house. Earle and Clara enjoyed gardening. A lot of people will remember the display of Christmas lights every Christmas. In 1966 Earle retired as Post Master. In 1970, due to ill health they sold their home to John and Ruby Love and moved to Chilliwack. Earle passed away in 1974, Clara in 1980. They are buried in the Legion Cemetery, Chilliwack, B.C.

Headstone at Camden lists Robert McMullen, 1851-1901, dau. Susie M. 1898-1919, wife Elizabeth Serrett, 1860-1939. Also Grant S. McMullen 1888-1966, wife Ruth M. 1893- .

Note: Peter and Sarah Serrett re buried in Camden, so it would appear that "Lovett" is incorrect.

On 18 Feb 1887 when Robert was 34, he married Elizabeth Serrett. Born on 14 Apr 1860. Elizabeth died in 1939; she was 78. Buried in Camden, Col. Co., NS.

From the Index to the 1881 census, 73 SALMON RIVER 73 SERRET PETER 59 M, SARAH 58 M, ELIZABETH 20, SARAH 17, CHARLOTTE 11.

I wonder if she, Elizabeth, had been married previously as the name Lovett in the marriage index might indicate.

They had the following children:

Grant was employed with Brookfield Creamery as the buttermaker for a number of years through the 1940's and 1950's, and he remembered a family connection with Martha Goff, dau. of Rachel (McMullin) McDougall, which was passed on through her grandson Everill Goff who also worked at Brookfield Creamery. This implies that John in Stewiacke and Archibald in Musquodoboit were related, brothers? No evidence of this has been found.

The first year of their marriage, they lived in the kitchen of their home. The remainder of the house was built the next summer and the barn in 1891. Reuben learned the blacksmith trade from Dan Ross whose home was on the opposite side of the road. A few years later, thirteen acres was added to the farm grandfather bought from Sam Johnson owned by his father William Johnson of Newton Mills. In the home which still stands today but vacant (recorded in the late '70's) there is a hard covered bible (leather cover) belonging to Uncle Gus Dean (1894-1974). This bible was given to him as a young man while working for John Dean during haying. It is over one hundred years old (both old and new testaments) and after each chapter there is a sermon. It is a large bible. An operation for ruptured appendix was performed in this house on the kitchen table. The table is still there. Uncle Gus was the patient and was very sick. A trained nurse (Margaret MacLeod) who died overseas took care of him. Doctors from Halifax did the operation. Lillian and Reuben were Presbyterian by faith and attended Dean Sharon Presbyterian Church. Lillian sang in the choir at the age of 14 and sang for many years. DICKIE, Edwin James (Ted), BSc, PEng; 88 Dartmouth, formerly of Stewiacke. A good and honest man died August 27th, 2010 on what would have been his 61st Anniversary. Ted was born at home in Stewiacke on January 5, 1922 to Nellie (Gould) and Rufus Dickie. His childhood was full of adventure with his 3 brothers, 2 sisters, a pet bear named Billy, and a team of great Dane dogs whose leader Danny would haul Dad and his siblings around town in a sleigh. His playground was the "Canadian Lumber Co." which was one of the biggest logging operations in N.S. at the time. His growing-up years spanned the Great Depression, the tail end of the Age of Iron Men and Wooden ships and the space between two World Wars. Dad was greatly influenced by all three events and had many stories of the exploits and strengths of the company loggers who still used taxes, buck saws and horses to get the logs out. Much time was spent at Clam Harbour, at the family cottage, where he met the love of his life at the age of 13 - Florence MacKinnon - and promptly married her in a mock wedding on the beach. Many events would transpire before their real wedding in 1949, including getting his pilot's license on his 17th birthday, finishing school and earning a BSc at Mount Allison University, where he narrowly escaped death when his residence burned down. He was a 2nd Lieutenant in the Cadet Officers Training Corp there. He later graduated from McGill University as a Mechanical Engineer and began work in the Canadian Lumber Company, first in Stewiacke, then in mill sites at Barney's River, Glenelg, NS and Gillis Dale. Ted and Flo had three children, Paul (Maxine), Mark, and Jan (Fred Watkins). When Paul was of school age, they moved from the mill camps to Stewiacke. In 1955, Ted left the lumber business and began exporting wild Christmas Trees to the States. In Stewiacke, he was a member of the United Church, a Gyros leader and a member of the school board at various times. He eventually took a job with the Voluntary Economic Planning Board and then with the NS Department of Development in Halifax. The family moved to Dartmouth in 1963. Dad is survived by his sister Lois (McMillan) and was predeceased by wife Florence, brothers Donald, Harold and his sister Alice (Hampton). He is fondly remembered by his children and grandchildren- Heather, Michael and Allison Watkins and Chelsea and Ryan Dickie. Interment at Pine Grove Cemetery in East Stewiacke.

- On 27 Aug 1949 when Edwin James (Ted) was 27, he married Elizabeth "Florence" MacKinnon. Born in 1916. Elizabeth "Florence" died in 2007; she was 91. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.
- v. Lois Ellen. Born on 24 Aug 1925 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Lois Ellen died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 4 Dec 2018; she was 93.

She graduated from Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada in 1946. While there, she was Secretary of the Women's Council and Vice President of the Student Union. Following school, she moved to Montreal and worked at the Pathological Institute of McGill University, where she met and married Dr Gardner Craddock McMillan in 1948. They moved to Switzerland for a year for her husband's studies, then moved to Lachine, Quebec, Canada to raise their family. They moved to Bethesda, MD in 1967 where her husband worked at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). She participated in art shows sponsored by the Welcome to Washington International Club, showing her water color paintings.

She was predeceased by her parents, Rufus Edward Dickie and Ellen Fletcher Gould Dickie; her husband of 56 years, Gardner Craddock McMillan; and her son, William Edward 'Ted' Dickie McMillan (1950-2016). She was survived two daughters and their spouses; a son; two daughters-in-law; five granddaughters; three grandsons; two great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law; and a cousin.

Lois Ellen married Dr. Gardner Craddock McMillan. Born on 10 Nov 1918 in Lachine, Quebec. Gardner Craddock died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 8 Apr 2004; he was 85.

He graduated with a degree in medicine from McGill University in Montreal, Canada in 1944, having won the John Munro Elder Prize for Honors studies in anatomy. He received his Masters degree in 1946 and a PhD degree in 1948. He was a Markel Scholar in Medical Science and began his research career with investigations of human and experimental atherosclerosis. Among his early work was the paradoxical observation that experimental diabetes, induced by alloxan, inhibited the atherosclerosis resulting from feeding cholesterol to a rabbit. As a result of this fundamental research, it became known that some lipoprotein particles are atherogenic whereas others are not, and it likely caused the speculation that the cause of atherosclerosis was far more complicated than being solely caused by too much cholesterol in the blood. He also studied the effects of undernutrition and of cortisone on cholesterol-induced atherosclerosis. He served as Strathcona Professor of Pathology and became Chairman of the Department of Pathology at McGill University. He was also chief of Pathology at the Royal Victoria Hospital in 1957, and a consulting pathologist, through 1966, to the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, the Montreal Neurological Institute, the Montreal Children's Hospital, the Montreal General Hospital, and the Jewish Hospital of Hope. He became a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (Pathology) in 1964. He continued to study human and experimental atherosclerosis, reporting on the effects of saturated, unsaturated, and trans-fatty acids in cholesterol-fed rabbits and on amino acid deficiencies. He received the AHA Citation for Distinguished Service to Research in 1965. He joined the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 1966, first as a consultant and then as special assistant to the Director of the Heart Institute (1968), as Chief of the Arteriosclerosis Diseases Branch, and, between 1972 and 1991, as Director of the Arteriosclerosis, Hypertension, and Lipid Metabolism Program at the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Through his efforts, the NIH pioneered research programs on nutrition, lesion dynamics, and the relationship of hemodynamics to atherogenesis, which led to the establishment of nonhuman primate resources. He retired in 1991.

He was survived by his wife, Lois Ellen Dickie McMillan; two sons and their spouses; two daughters and their spouses; and eight grandchildren.

CLARKE, LESTER C.

The world lost a beautiful soul with the passing of Les Clarke at the Moncton Hospital on Wednesday, April 5, 2017. Aged 91 years, Les was born in Lower Onslow, NS, the son of the late Harry and Margaret (Whidden) Clarke.

He is survived by the love of his life, his wife of 68 years, Edna (Robertson) Clarke and his children, Lyle Clarke of Oromocto and Leslie Ann Harrison (Jeff) of Dawson Settlement; his grandson Jeffrey Clarke Harrison and his wife Rhonda; granddaughter Michelle Ann Knowlton and her husband Matt; and his pride and joy of recent years, his great-grandchildren: Bradley and Riley Knowlton and Sarah and Laura Harrison, all of the Hillsborough area. As well as his sisters, Phyllis Clarke and Marion Clarke, both of Truro, NS, many nieces, nephews and cousins. Besides his parents, Les was predeceased by his sisters: Winnifred, Beryl and Verna; and brothers: Ray, Ken, and Darry.

Retired for 36 years, prior to that Les was employed with the Ministry of Transport (MOT) in the airport management profession. Throughout his career he worked at various airports, including those in Charlottetown, Saint John, Fredericton, Goose Bay and Stephenville. He ended his career working out of the MOT Atlantic Canada head office in Moncton, NB.

A very proud WWII veteran, Les joined the Navy and went off to war at the age of 17. For most of the war years he was stationed on the Canadian Corvette-class ship, The Eyebright, escorting and protecting convoys of ships crossing from Canada to Europe. After he mustered out of the Navy, Les moved to Northern Alberta where he met his beautiful Edna and they were married in Manning, AB, in 1949. Their son Lyle was born there and, when they moved back to Lower Onslow, NS, they welcomed Leslie Ann into the family. Prior to joining MOT, Les owned and operated Clarke & Whidden General Store in Lower Onslow, NS, with his uncle and also was a firefighter at Base 16X in Debert and later a fire chief at Halifax International Airport.

A true sportsman, Les excelled at softball, hockey, darts, pool and even ping pong, winning many championships throughout his younger years. He was a player and coach in the Truro District Hockey League for many years, beginning in the early 1940s. He also coached many softball teams in the Truro area over the years and was instrumental in organizing and starting the Little League involving many communities in that area. In the 1960s, following his move to Moncton, NB, Les became involved in the management of Viponds Fastball Team, culminating in a trip with the team to represent the Maritimes at the Canadian Senior Men's Fast Pitch Championships in Western Canada. He was inducted along with the Viponds Team into the Softball New Brunswick Inc. Labatt Hall of Fame in 2009. He is also a member of Moncton's Sports Wall of Fame.

Les' family would like to extend their thanks to the staff of the 4600 unit of the Moncton Hospital as well as to those in the Stroke Rehab Center for their excellent care and kindness. Also to the staff and residents of Lakeview Manor, Riverview, where Les spent the last 2 months.

The funeral will be held at Fair Haven Funeral Home, 1177 Salisbury Road, Moncton, NB, on Monday, April 10, at 2 p.m., beginning with a Memorial Service conducted by the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch #6. Visitation at the Funeral Home on Sunday, April 9, from 4 to 7 p.m. Interment at the Clarke Family Cemetery in Lower Onslow, NS, later in the Spring.

In memory of Les, a donation to the Hillsborough United Church, 2891 Main St., Hillsborough, NB, E4H 2X8, or to The Friends of the Moncton Hospital or a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated.

Veteran Stories: Lester Cashmore "Clarkie" Clarke, navy.

<http://www.thememoryproject.com/>

I was drafted onto the HMCS Eyebright. At the time, it was in Pictou [Nova Scotia] for a refit. They [corvettes] were, you know, relatively small compared to destroyers and so on, and very rough. Just one propeller instead of two, so you were going this way as well as that way. They were noted for being the roughest ship in the navy. Quite a few people that would be seasick on them, they'd have to draft them off and put them on a larger ship or give them a shore draft.

Our first, I guess, after the refit in Pictou, we went to Halifax and then took right off for Bermuda. After a refit, you have to go through what they called evolutions to make sure that everything was seaworthy before they put you on convoy duty and try out all the engines, and the armament and so on. So we spent about, I guess, a week and a half in Bermuda and then we were on convoy duty after that.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

The convoys would form up that time in the harbours and you never had any idea when you were going to be leaving. It was usually in the wee hours of the morning that we'd slip out of the harbour with the convoy and then more ships would come out of say, Newfoundland, St. John's, some out of Sydney, and we'd pick them up as we went along. When you got your full complement, then you, we headed out for Britain.

I think maybe the one memory that, although there's several, but the one that stands out the most was probably Christmas Eve 1944. We were going along pretty well and then all of a sudden, we picked up an echo on the ASDIC: there was a submarine underneath us. By the time we found out that, he was close to the convoy, so the submarine kept going right in under the convoy. We were after him by this time, we were chasing him. But we couldn't drop any [depth] charges [anti-submarine weapons] because we would have blown up some of the closer ships in the convoy. So we were signaling to the convoy ships to spread out, to let us drop some charges and some of them seemed to move pretty slow, you know. But they did eventually spread out and that allowed us to drop charges on the submarine; and we kept them going and chased them right out through the convoy. And I said, I guess it would be about midnight when we got him free of the convoy and where we could, you know, concentrate on the attack. So we kept on his tail, kept a signal in the ASDIC and every time we'd get in a favourable position, we'd drop charges. It was a moonlit night and very calm, kind of a night the submarines loved. I was thinking of Christmas back home, what the kids would all be doing and here I was, strapped to the Oerlikon [anti-aircraft gun]. I was captain of the port Oerlikon at that time, the captain of the Oerlikon is the one that fires.

A lot of thoughts were going through my mind at that time, should I be here or should I be home with the family on Christmas Eve? But I'll never forget that night. We kept him in our ASDIC until daybreak. And then we lost him. When daybreak came, we were all alone on the Atlantic. We had left the convoy behind, but it took us about three or four hours to get back into the convoy again, but we did our duty, we chased him away from the convoy, which was our objective, to protect the convoy. I guess I remember that night because of being Christmas, and so on.

And then the next day was Christmas. It's a tradition in the navy the youngest guy onboard ship is captain on Christmas Day, so I was captain for a day, but we had "action stations" [command to prepare for combat] a couple of times and we had to revert back to the original.

Another time I'll never forget, we had 27 foot whalers for our lifeboats, two of them slung on the side. So one day we had action stations and we'd had to drop charges and that fouled up our ASDIC and radar systems. We didn't have a technician onboard our ship. The only technician was onboard the senior ship, which is a destroyer. So we had to lower a lifeboat and row over to the senior ship; and got the technician and brought him back and it took him quite a while to get our ASDIC back up and running again.

In the meantime, the seas had got quite rough. A storm was coming up; and we rowed him back to his ship. He had quite a time getting him back onboard because the motion of the waves and everything, but he did get back. But by the time we got back to our ship, a storm was on. We were out in this lifeboat. It was so rough that when the waves would go from under the corvette, we could see the propellers going in the air, out of the water altogether. And we were down there rocking; and the way you get the lifeboat hooked up, you have a line aft and forward and a block-and-tackle, and you had to hook them on and then the guys onboard would all run towards the forecastle, pulling the rope that would raise us up. The first time, we just got one end hooked and the wave hit us and so just one end of it come up. When the ship rolled over, we finally got that unhooked, so we were on even keel again and the next time we got both ends. But they'd get us up so far and then the ship would go this way and we would smash right up against it in the lifeboat. Once they got us up high enough, we would go way out. When she rolled, we'd come back and smash up against it and a couple of guys would jump onto the deck at that time.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

And that's how we had to get all the guys off. I was the third from the last getting off, I remember. There was cuts and bruises because of the lines flying around, and so on. But that was it; we all got off. The lifeboat was so smashed up that they just cut her loose and let her go.

I guess we all went and we did what we thought we had to do.

Mom was born in Melrose, MA to Ernest T. and Rebecca M. (Whidden) Webb. She was one of five children: Kenneth, Melvin, William and Mildred.

Mom was married November 16, 1956 to my Dad, Arthur A. Sheppard. They lived in MA, and Dad helped to raise my eldest sister Linda and my brother Ron (from Mom's first marriage to Carl Young). They had three daughters while living in MA: Donna, Susan and Bonnie (me).

Mom and Dad moved their family to Wells, ME in 1964, and Dad commuted back and forth to MA to work. In 1966 they welcomed their youngest daughter, Pam. They have 14 loving grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Sara, Michael, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky. Joining the family over the years were great-grands: David, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Sarah, Laci & Rashonda (since Mom passed have been Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander).

Dad became ill in the '70s and had to retire. His disability opened up some interesting doors for my parents. It gave them the opportunity to open an antique shop, and it became a passion of theirs to go to flea markets and yard sales to find treasures to buy and re-sell. Their shop was quite successful until Dad's health began to decline, and they had to move to a smaller home in 1976-77.

They lived there for 9 years, raising their family, welcoming grandchildren, and enjoying camping and other activities as Dad's health would allow.

In 1985 they moved to Sanford, ME, and they lived there together until October 4, 2005 when Dad passed away. Mom continued to live there, although going on visits to her children's homes on occasion.

Mom passed away in Boston, MA from an aneurism, just below her heart. It was an unexpected and tragic event.

Mom's life was a shining example of what a loving wife and mother, grandmother and great-grandmother she was, as well as a beloved Auntie, sister and friend. We will miss her always.

Suffolk, MA. Arthur Archibald died in Sanford, Maine, on 4 Oct 2005; he was 80.

Dad was known by many names. Among them were Art, Arch, Shep, and Don. (Where Don came from, I don't know, but he answered to it). I think the ones he was the most proud of were "Daddy" and "Grampa". Dad loved his family and enjoyed spending time with all of us. He was married to his beloved wife Barbara (known to him affectionately as "Kitty") for 48 years. They had 6 children: Linda, Ron, Donna, Susan, Bonnie & Pamela; 14 grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Michael, Sara, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky; and 10 great-grandchildren: Davey, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Laci, Sarah, (born since he passed are Rashonda, Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander).

Dad was one of the first patients at Mass General hospital to undergo open heart surgery for a mitral valve replacement. The doctors at that time were unsure of Dad's life expectancy after such an operation, and gave him an estimate of 7 years. He lived many times over that from the time of the operation in 1962.

Daddy I love and miss you. I hope you were watching over the celebration of your life. We wanted this time to reflect our love and affection for you and to show the fabulous people you and Mom have raised us to be. You showed us how to love, how to not let things get us down, and how to make the most of every single day. Thank you for your love, your guidance and your patience. Thank you for being our Daddy. We love you, and miss you greatly.

Chronicle Herald 6/29/1963

The body of a 65-year-old Colchester County man, who drowned Thursday night, was recovered yesterday morning. George Bartlett of Bible Hill, near Truro, drowned when the boat he was in, over-turned in Northumberland Strait near Marshville, Pictou County. Accompanying Mr. Bartlett was his granddaughter's husband, Robert Cumming Cook, also of Bible Hill, who managed to remain with the boat and reach shore safely. The men were 200 yards off shore when the accident occurred at about 9:30 when tides were high and the water rough. RCMP said Mrs. Cook was visiting in a summer cottage on the shore and heard cries for help from the water. Dragging operations yesterday morning were hampered by high winds and shifting tides. The body was located at 11:10. Pictou RCMP were not certain what caused the boat to overturn but estimated high winds were probably mainly responsible. Medical examiner Dr. S.D. Dunn of Pictou ordered an autopsy which was performed at Aberdeen Hospital in New Glasgow yesterday, by Dr. N. Park. Mr. Bartlett who was employed by the Canada Creosote Plant at Bible Hill until his retirement a few years ago, is survived by a son, Robert, Truro; five daughters, Rose (Mrs. Harold Corbett), Truro; Freda (Mrs. John Langille), Brookside; Marion (Mrs. Roland Whidden), London, Ont.; Violet (Mrs. Don Duclos), Timmins, Ont.; and Dorothy of Mimico, Ont.; several sisters and brothers. Vernon married Marion Rossamond "Rossie".

Marion Rosamond "Rossie" Wilson, 88, Truro, passed away Friday, Feb. 12, 2010 in Hants Community Hospital, Windsor. Apple pie with a slice of cheese. Just one of Rossie's interesting customs. Born and raised in Margaree, Marion Rosamond Wilson was one of 10 children. Working on the farm, she learned early on the lessons she carried through her whole life: resourcefulness, industriousness and the importance of family. She was devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Loving and benevolent, resilient and tenacious, most of us knew there were two ways of doing things "Nan's way" or the wrong way. Rossie married Vernon in 1944 and supported him as he built Wilson Equipment from the ground up in Truro, N.S. After his sudden passing in 1975, Rossie immersed herself in her community. Rossie became part of the very fabric of her town. She was the first female golfer in Truro to record a hole-in-one. Whether you were a united church member, a business owner, or simply a neighbour who greeted her on her daily walk, you knew Rossie. Later in life, illness began to take its toll, eroding her independence. True to form, she fought to maintain her autonomous lifestyle. I can still hear her protests of, "I can do it!" while cradling her broken wrist in a sling, hovering as I assembled a chicken sandwich (her favourite). Macular degeneration, stroke and dementia may have taken her body and mind, but her "willâ" remained strong, fighting to stay with us as long as she could. Rossie was the last to ever ask for help, the first on your doorstep in a time of need to offer help, apple pie in hand. With cheese, of course. Thanks Nan, we will miss you. Rossie is survived by her son, V. Graham Wilson (Linda first marriage, she threw herself into her work with the Federal Government at the military base in Kingston, Ontario. Through her work, she met and quickly fell in love with a handsome Sergeant who would regularly visit her office with a big smile and many jokes to tell. After several years of dating, Glenda married her soulmate, Dennis, in 1988, and for the next 34 years, Dennis and Glenda formed an incredible partnership filled with love, mutual respect and most importantly, lots of laughter and fun. While Glenda experienced her share of sorrow, including the unexpected loss of her son, Scott, in 1986, she survived these difficult times through her loving relationships with Dennis and her son, Gary. In 1988, Glenda moved to Alberta for new adventures, including a career in Calgary real estate alongside Dennis. While work was important, Dennis and Glenda always made sure to travel to many different countries throughout the world, including Israel, Hawaii, Mexico and various parts of the United States and Canada. In 2009, after winding down their business, Glenda and Dennis moved to Perth, Ontario and shortly after, her son Gary and wife Roxanne moved to Ontario as well. In 2010, Glenda was filled with joy at becoming a grandmother for the first time. She spent the next eleven years doting on her granddaughter and soaking up all the time she could with Kaitlyn, including attending horseback riding lessons and Christmas concerts, baking treats together and organizing "Grammie" sleepovers. In addition to her neighbours and family in Ontario, Glenda also developed a community in Lincolnshire, Florida, spending many cold Canadian winters in the warm Floridian sun. She developed a close community of new friends among fellow snowbirds and cherished these friendships, particularly when she was diagnosed with cancer in 2016 and her Lincolnshire friends organized a "Team Glenda" support team with t-shirts and supportive messages and photos for Glenda as she prepared for radiation treatment. Despite all her travel, Glenda always remained loyal and connected to her home province of Nova Scotia, setting up a little home in Middle Stewiacke and spending many a summer and fall visiting with family and old childhood friends. Fisher, Donald Andrew – Age 82, Hilden. It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Don Fisher, age 82, after a short, but hard-fought battle with Acute Myeloid Leukemia. Don passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by his wife, and girls, on November 9th, 2022. Born on September 14th, 1940, in Halifax, to the late Lorna and Owen Fisher.

Don grew up in Middle Stewiacke, leaving school early, to work with his father, Owen, in carpentry. Following the death of his father, he took off out west on a new adventure, that eventually introduced him to the communication tower industry. Shortly after his move back to Nova Scotia, with only a red truck and a radio to his name, he started his own company, Don Fisher Construction Ltd. With the help of his wife, some faithful friends, and loyal employees, he built it up to the successful company that is still running today, 48 years later. He was a pioneer of the telecommunications industry in Atlantic Canada and is widely respected by his colleagues and peers that he worked with over the years. Don was a strong, intelligent, independent man, set in his ways, and the patriarch of our family. He worked hard, and there were no days off. We always joked that Dad's happy place was in an excavator, playing in the dirt, but we all knew it was the truth. His hard work helped him create a life he was proud of and providing for his family was always number one priority. Besides dedicating a life to his Company, he was deeply involved in the athletic community of Brookfield, spending many years on the rink board, playing hockey with the Cruise Missiles, and continued to play recreational hockey until the age of 78.

Although they came later in his life, he loved his grandchildren more than anything in this world. He and Owen shared many drives across the countryside, but he had a special bond with each and every one of them. Dad also enjoyed his acreage in South Branch, and spent time out there every day, until his health would no longer allow it. He was a huge animal lover, especially dogs and horses, and spent many years doing early morning barn chores, haying every summer, and paying lots of vet bills.

He is survived by his loyal wife of 49 years, Margaret; daughters, Paula, Fall River, Amy (Roddie MacLean), and Jenna, all of Hilden; cherished grandchildren, Owen, Mairi, Sybil, Jack, and Blake, all of Hilden. He is also survived by his sister, Ann Ferris MacDonald of Stewiacke.

MAXINE O. CALLAGHAN. Predeceased in death by her husband, Dr. Regis Callaghan and her daughter, Sharon E. Callaghan, her parents Viola and Wilfred MacLean and her brother Harold MacLean. Survived by her devoted daughter Patricia A. Callaghan (Monarch Beach, Ca) and her beloved grandson, Aaron P. Maier-Denk (Ann Arbor, Mi); by the extended Maier-Denk family and relatives of the Callaghan and MacLean families; her "Family of Friends" at The Henry Ford and the Dearborn CC. Her long and healthy life could be attributed to her feisty spirit, staying fit and preparing healthy meals. Whether on the beach on Marco Island or in the snows of Michigan winter, she took her long walks regularly. She enjoyed playing golf until just a few years ago, losing many of her dear contemporaries over the years. Her mental acuity was never compromised in age: completing crossword puzzles and being an avid reader most every day. She had a soft spot for dogs, sweets, a tan and birdwatching in her yard. When her relatives, friends and neighbors checked in on her (though adamantly independent), she felt very special. As a Scot and a Taurus, she was oftentimes stubborn but you could always count on her to be a truthful Lady. "Nan", as she was affectionately called, looked forward to gourmet family dinners with the Maier-Denk's. She was a devoted volunteer all her adult life but none more enjoyable than at The Henry Ford...in the Museum, in the Village, in the gardens, with the Herb Society and her group of adventurers. Living her earlier years in Nova Scotia, Canada, she later became a proud American citizen and patriot after moving to the US with her family. Her friends and family gave her the utmost joy. She was looking forward to many more years of vibrant life. I hope you'll see a shooting star someday and think of her with a smile. In lieu of any flowers, donations would be welcome at The Henry Ford.

Note: Maxine was murdered during a break-in to her home.

Aaron, b. 1983, was Sharon's son.

He was the last surviving member of his family.

BEAVER BROOK - You may have known him as Sylvester (Bus) McCallum.

From now on, however, you might want to change that to "Sir Sylvester" Or, perhaps, "Sir Bus."

The 89-year-old Beaver Brook resident is the second local veteran to have been granted knighthood by the government of France for his services to that country during the Second World War.

"He's getting pretty hard to get along with," joked McCallum's wife, Doris, since being awarded the rank of Knight of the French National Order of the Legion of Honour.

"This distinction illustrates the profound gratitude that France would like to express to you," said Nicolas Chapuis, the French Ambassador to Canada, in a letter to McCallum, of his country's highest national order.

"It is awarded in recognition of your professional involvement in the liberation of our country. Through you, France remembers the sacrifice of all of your compatriots who came to liberate French soil."

And despite his wife's reference to a changed demeanor or his playful insistence at being referred to as "Sir Bus," McCallum said the award actually carries a lot of meaning for him.

"Oh, I think the world of getting one of those," he said, of the beautifully crafted insignia pin.

"Because to me, thinking where I joined up so young, and wounded, and slept on the ground for a number of years and all that, there's a lot of down pull or whatever you want to call it."

Sir Bus was 17 and working in the woods driving a yard (logging) horse when he and a buddy decided to head to Halifax to sign up for the war effort.

On May 7, 1944, he set sail from Halifax aboard the SS Ile de France and seven days later he landed in England, where he was subsequently assigned to the Canadian Scottish Regiment from British Columbia.

On D-Day, June 6, 1944, he was among the first allied troops who stormed Juno Beach in Normandy during the early morning hours.

Unlike many of his comrades, McCallum survived the bloody slaughter that followed, but his luck eventually ran out on Oct. 8, 1944, shortly after crossing the Leopold Canal in Northern Belgium.

"I was all by myself coming out this road and that's when I seen this fella limping, couldn't hardly walk," he said. The soldier was hollering for help and knowing that the German enemy was heading towards them, McCallum picked him up and started carrying him away.

Shortly after, he said, a highly deadly 88 mm shell came whizzing in and after striking a nearby barn, McCallum was felled by a piece of shrapnel that struck the back of one of his legs.

"So he went right over my head," he said, of the other wounded soldier. "I didn't bother picking him up anymore. He got up and left, running anyway."

After a long recovery period, McCallum was involved in several weapons-related courses before heading home for some rest and relaxation.

One day during that period, while putting in some hay on his brother's farm, he received word that the war was over. Now, seven decades later, as part of the 70th anniversary celebrations of the war's end, McCallum has been given his due by the French government.

"I can't imagine, I really can't imagine the honour that it is to receive that recognition," a proudly beaming Doris said. "Even if it is 70 years later

"And I just feel that he is really deserving of it."

Born May 7, 1930 at the Springhill Hospital and raised in Oxford, Jack was the eldest child of the late John George and Elsie Beatrice (Swan) Ferguson.

Jack had two great passions: his family and his horses. As the owner of Precentor Farms, Jack raised Standardbreds and raced them throughout the Maritimes for more than 50 years. He was deeply involved in harness racing as a breeder, trainer, driver, judge, and longtime Manager of the Atlantic Standardbred Breeders Association, serving on the Maritime Provinces Harness Racing Commission and Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition Commission. He was honoured with the Glenn Kennedy Memorial Award, the Ron Waples Award, and Senior Horsemen's Award (Truro) in recognition of his service, commitment and exceptional contributions to the harness racing and breeding industries. He shared many racing adventures with his late brother Doug. One of his proudest moments was breaking the two-minute mile with Precentor Frost in 2006.

Jack had a 32-year career with Canadian National Railways, working as a telegraph operator, station agent, trainmaster, transportation analyst in Moncton and Manager of the CN Express and Freight Terminal in Saint John. He saw Canada by rail, travelling on the last passenger train ferry from Cape Breton, the first train across the Canso Causeway and the last run of the "Newfie Bullet". After retirement from the railway, Jack took up farming, shipping cream to the Tatamagouche Creamery. He loved to hay and was still baling in his 85th year. Gay rights advocate set an example simply by being who he was

He and his partner were first to throw a gay wedding in Atlantic Canada after the law was changed

February 1, 2010

Some people change the world by making grand gestures and travelling great distances. Others, like Norman Carter, stick close to home and help change things by being fearless enough to just be themselves.

To illustrate just how profound certain changes were in Mr. Carter's lifetime, it is useful to note that in 1957, when he married Arlene Maynard in Truro, N.S., homosexuality was against the law in Canada (as it would be until 1969). By the time Mr. Carter married Gerard Veldhoven in 2004 - in what would be the first public wedding of a same-sex couple in Atlantic Canada - he had lived openly in a gay relationship in Amherst, N.S., for more than 30 years, raised two daughters from his first marriage, become a second father to Mr. Veldhoven's two sons, co-founded a gay pride group, helped to promote equal rights for gays and supported the fight to have his relationship sanctioned by the state.

"Here were two men who, in the '70s and '80s in a small town, didn't deny who they were," said Mr. Veldhoven's son Chris, now a gay-rights activist himself. "They were open and welcoming and community-minded, and in a town of 10,000 people, that took courage.

"There was no denying who they were as a couple and they never shied away from that."

Norman Anthony Carter was born in Amherst on Jan. 16, 1937. His father, Clairmont, was a mechanic; his mother, Edna, was a pastry chef at the Fort Cumberland Hotel. After graduating from Amherst Regional High, he went to work for Capitol Theatres, managing movie theatres in Charlottetown and then in Truro.

He and his first wife had daughters Cindy-Ann and Laurel-Lee. But the traditional family model didn't work - because Mr. Carter was gay. When the divorce came in the mid-1960s, it was hard and painful.

"Sort of like back to the Brokeback Mountain days," Mr. Veldhoven says now.

But as hard as it was to come out publicly as a gay man at that place and time, Mr. Carter stepped immediately into another non-traditional role. He took custody of his daughters and moved into an apartment in his parents' home in Amherst to raise them, working first at Canadian Tire and then as assistant manager at the Cumberland Hotel.

"We lived up over my grandmother, but my Dad was responsible; he brought us up," said his daughter Cindy McKillop, now 50 and living in Morinville, Alta.

In 1974, her father met Mr. Veldhoven, a teacher at the Amherst School for the Deaf. Like Mr. Carter, he had struggled to make a conventional marriage work, then had to admit that it did not. A year later, the two men moved in together, becoming the first gay couple to live openly in the region.

"Of course we knew we were being talked about," Mr. Veldhoven said. "But there were never any overt repercussions, no anti-gay remarks made. I thought it was pretty well-accepted under the circumstances. The fact that this was quite a conservative area makes it all the more remarkable."

In 1977, they started Carvel Upholstery and Draperies, which made their living and allowed Mr. Carter to indulge one of his passions - he loved to fix up old furniture, especially antiques.

Family members came around to the idea of "the two Dads" in their own way and at their own pace. For Cindy, having "Dad No. 1 and Dad No. 2" was never much of an issue.

"I met Gerard when I was 15," she said. "He was very personable and seemed to fit right in. He just stepped right in to the family unit. They approached things in the right way in this respect."

For her sister it was harder, she said, but Laurel eventually came around.

Mr. Veldhoven's sons, who went back to Yarmouth, N.S., with their mother, also had their own ways of dealing with suddenly finding themselves in a non-traditional family. For Chris, as for Cindy, the arrangement seemed natural.

For Mark, Mr. Veldhoven's younger son, it took more time.

"When we visited," Chris said, there were all sorts of interesting people around. It opened our minds about people who were different. It dispelled a lot of the myths."

Through it all, "we were a family," Mr. Veldhoven said. "Even though my sons weren't living with us, we were a family."

Mr. Carter's domain was the kitchen, wherein he was affectionately known as "Norma Jean the kitchen queen."

He loved to put on spreads for family holidays and for entertaining friends. Cindy remembers his great soups, how he could look in the fridge and come up with an unscripted masterpiece. Chris remembers great hors d'oeuvres and oly bolen, a traditional Dutch New Year's doughnut made in honour of Mr. Veldhoven's Dutch roots.

Most of all they remember warmth and acceptance. "We learned that people are people and love is love," Chris said. Mr. Carter and Mr. Veldhoven started the Cumberland (County) Pride Group, and went out of their way to make their home a place where people of all sexual orientations could feel comfortable being themselves.

Chris said the two Dads gave him the confidence to accept the homosexuality he had kept from the world until late in high school. Now 43 and the Queer Parenting Program co-ordinator at the 519 Church St. Community Centre in Toronto, he's helping others do the same.

In 2001, Mr. Veldhoven suffered a heart attack, a mind-focusing event that made him and Mr. Carter realize there was more to be done. They were seeing the progress of equal rights for gays, but were still prohibited from being a couple in the eyes of the law. They wanted to be married.

There followed letter-writing campaigns to newspapers and phone calls to federal and provincial legislators, as they joined with others throughout Canada to make gay marriage a reality.

Same-sex marriage was legally recognized in Ontario in 2003, which gave the movement a huge boost. Next came British Columbia, Quebec, Yukon and Manitoba.

In August, 2004, a Halifax lawyer filed a suit against the federal and provincial governments demanding same-sex marriage licences for three couples. On Sept. 23, the Nova Scotia Supreme Court ruled that banning such marriage was unconstitutional. The province said it would not fight the ruling.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

Mr. Carter and Mr. Veldhoven wasted no time. They scrambled to get their paperwork together and three weeks later made history under a tent at the Live Bait Theatre they loved in Sackville, N.B., surrounded by family and 125 guests. Finally, they would gain legal recognition for being what they had been for decades - a family.

"They were a very public pair and that had a huge influence in Cumberland County and in Nova Scotia," said Eldon Hay, the long-time gay-rights activist from Sackville who presided at Mr. Carter's funeral.

"For a long time they didn't really flaunt [their homosexuality]. But when they started flaunting, they flaunted big time. They made a big splash."

"It was wonderful," Mr. Veldhoven said of the wedding, and all the more important to have done from the perspective of Mr. Carter's passing. "I never thought it would happen in my lifetime, but it came to pass."

Walnut Grove family grieving loss of mother and daughter, Langley, Walnut Grove posted Mar 16, 2017 at 4:00 PM

The tight-knit community of Walnut Grove is in mourning this spring break, after learning about the loss of Nichole Sanders and her 10-year-old daughter Brooklyn Flores, who died in a crash near Jasper on Saturday, March 11.

Adam Flores said he wanted to reach out to those who knew and loved Nichole and their daughter, Brooklyn, and to the parents of students who attended Brooklyn's school, Dorothy Peacock Elementary. A service is being planned at the Loft Horse Riding Camp in Aldergrove where Brooklyn loved going.

"Brooklyn was supposed to become a wrangler. She was so looking forward to that," said Adam.

"For Nichole, everything is about her kids. She is a Girl Guide leader and part of Scouts. She was an amazing mother and would do anything for anyone," he said.

Nichole and her mom, Jennifer Sanders, were taking Brooklyn and their eight-year-old son, Wyatt, to West Edmonton Mall for a spring break vacation when the crash took place, 13 kilometres east of Jasper.

At approximately 10:45 p.m., while on patrol, Jasper RCMP came across the two-vehicle collision on Highway 16.

The van the Langley family was travelling in had collided, head-on, with a pickup truck. According to Jasper RCMP, two occupants of the van were pronounced deceased at the scene — a 33-year-old woman and her 10-year-old daughter. The family's eight-year-old boy was also in the van but was not injured. The 56-year-old grandmother in the van suffered non-life threatening injuries, said police.

Wyatt was physically uninjured in the crash. His grandmother is home from hospital but is badly injured. Both are suffering emotionally, said Adam.

The driver of the truck, a 51-year-old man from Calgary, was taken to hospital in serious condition, where he remained as of Thursday.

Highway 16 was closed all night and into the morning, while RCMP investigated with the assistance of an RCMP collision analyst team.

Adam has been told the wreckage was so bad that it will be some time before they know what caused the crash.

He said he is getting lots of support from friends and family.

"I catch myself and then start crying, realizing this is real. I wouldn't wish this on anyone. It will be a long process, and we have to be strong for my son, Wyatt."

Adam wanted to share what a joy his daughter was to all who were lucky enough to know her.

"Brooklyn would do anything for anyone. She would reach out and be friends with anybody," he said.

The loss has hit hard for Brooklyn's best friend, Ross, said Adam, noting the pair did everything together.

Nichole grew up in Walnut Grove and is a WGSS graduate, who chose to raise her own family in the place that had so many great memories for her, growing up, he said.

A memorial service and reception will be held on Thursday, April 26th at 2 pm in the Upper Stewiacke United Church. A private family committal only directly following the service at Riverside Cemetery. Family flowers only. In lieu of flowers, donations in Gordon’s memory may be made to the Upper Stewiacke Village Green Park to purchase playground equipment or the Colchester County Victorian Order of Nurses. Special thanks to the 4th Floor nurses at Colchester Regional Hospital and the VON who attended to him for several years. Arrangements entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, Truro.
