First Generation

1. James Sweet, son of Benoni Sweet (7 Oct 1748-) & Lydia Dimock (27 Aug 1748-). Born abt 1777 in Falmouth, NS. James died in Horton, Kings Co., NS, on 2 Dec 1847; he was 70. Residence: Rawdon, NS.

James Sweet was a son of Benoni Sweet, who was born in North Kingstown, Rhode Island and died in Scotch Village, Hants Co., Nova Scotia, and Lydia Dimock. Benoni was a son of the Benoni Sweet who came to Nova Scotia in 1760 from North Kingstown, Rhode Island and settled in Cornwallis, Kings Co., NS.¹

The Sweet Family of Rhode Island has been well documented. They were known for several generations as “bonesetters”. The lineage to Benoni is as follows, and this information is recorded in Austin, John Osborne. 1887. The Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, (comprising three generations of settlers who came before 1690, with many families carried to the fourth generation). Joel Munsell's Sons, Albany, NY.:

¹ Feb. 7, 2022: This update includes a discussion of James Benjamin Sweet of Aldersville, Lunenburg Co., and New Ross area. March 31, 2023: several minor updates. Apr 9, 2024, added several updates to the family of Joseph Sweet (#3), including the obituary of Phyllis (Ceratto) Evans (#251), a descendant of Joseph with whom I had much correspondence some 20 years ago.

Although the descendants of other children of Benoni Sweet (Jr.) have been well researched, notably by Maribelle Smiley and Iola Young³, the descendants of James are less well known. Ross Graves, noted Hants County genealogist, 8 April 1977, concluded based on his research that James of Rawdon was the son of Benoni.² A number of children of James and Elizabeth have been identified by Joan Curtis Jowsey, from the Parish of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Rawdon, NS.⁴

1838 census shows a total of 7 persons in family living in Rawdon, Hants Co. NS, Canada.

"Died at Horton on the 2nd, Mr. James Sweet, aged 70 years. Mr. Sweet was a member of the Baptist Church at Rawdon" - Christian Messenger, 31 Dec. 1847.

An Addendum was incorporated into the Sweet Saga³ as follows, "Subsequent to the work done by Maribelle Smiley and Joan Jowsey, work was undertaken by Messrs. George Sweet, Jack Adams and Ronald Barkhouse, who researched and documented the family of James Sweet of New Ross, Nova Scotia. This section was modified in 2005 to add the family and descendants of James Sweet who moved to Aldersville, (Lunenburg Co.). It is he who is believed to be the son of Benoni and Lydia (Dimock) Sweet. The West Hants Historical Society is grateful to these gentlemen for sharing this material." Pages 209-1 to 209-20 were inserted, based on the following record,

"INFORMATION COPIED FROM THE RECORDS OF CHRIST ANGLICAN CHURCH, NEW ROSS, LUNENBURG COUNTY, NOVA SCOTIA, ON MICROFILM AT THE QUARTERS OF THE NEW ROSS HISTORICAL SOCIETY, ROSS FARM MUSEUM, NEW ROSS.

I HEREBY DECLARE THE ABOVE BAPTISMAL RECORD WAS READ AND ACCURATELY COPIED BY THE UNDERSIGNED ON THIS DAY, JULY 5TH,

Their Register report begins with Generation 1, James Sweet, m. Elizabeth, Ch. i. James Benjamin Sweet, b. 17 Sept. 1827. Generations 2-7 detail the descendants of James Benjamin Sweet and his wife Letitia DeAdder in the areas of Aldersville and New Ross, Lunenburg Co. Aldersville is 30 km inland (South) from Kentville.

I think they have identified another brother of my ancestor Wellington Sweet and Joan Jowsey's ancestor William Sweet, namely their James Benjamin. "James and Elizabeth" were parents of all three, along with others, and James Sr., "of Rawdon" died in Horton, so he had connections there. So the fact that James Benjamin moved from Horton to Aldersville doesn't preclude the fact that his parents lived in Horton or Rawdon. James' son William ended up in River Philip, Cumb. Co. and Wellington ended up in Truro, after several years in Boston, so the sons did drift around. James Benjamin named sons William, Joseph and Wellington, presumably after his brothers (Wellington is not a common first name), he named a daughter Susan, presumably after his sister, and Wellington named a son Eber (also not a common first name), as did James Benjamin, so it all fits. So I think they reached the wrong conclusion in thinking that Joan's James couldn't also be their James.

This addendum was sent to me by Mr. Bill Fry of the West Hants Historical Society, and I have included it here as an Appendix, beginning on Page 70. I have also entered only the first two generations into this Register, to show the continuity in names.

James married Elizabeth.

They had the following children:

- 2 i. William (1801-26 Feb 1881)
- ii. Harriet. Born ca 1802. Harriet died in South Rawdon, NS, on 4 Sep 1876; she was 74.

By me, Henry Hayden, in the presence of James Sweet". St. Paul's Anglican Parish, Rawdon, Hants Co., NS, Library and Archives Canada Records.

On 11 Feb 1825 when Harriet was 23, she married Joseph Keating in Rawdon, NS. Born in 1807 in Wexford, Ireland. Joseph died in South Rawdon, NS, on 15 Jan 1876; he was 69.

Children of HARRIET SWEET and JOSEPH KEATING are:

Maria Sweet, age 13, daughter of James Sweet, is listed in the School Papers for District #5 Rawdon, 1 June 1834, along with brother Wellington, s/o James, age 16 (J. Jowsey).

- viii. Eliza.

John Drady married Eliza Sweet on 4 July 1838 (NSHVS). Marriage bond was sealed by Joseph Lacy and Wellington Sweet, both of Rawdon, and witnessed by Joseph Lacy, Wellington Sweet and Isaac Sweet. You could guess that Wellington was signing on behalf of his sister. The only Isaac I am aware of is Isaac Benoni Sweet, s/o Shubael, who was Wellington's first cousin. He was the same age as Wellington.

- 7 ix. James Benjamin (17 Sep 1827-)

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

Canada Records via Joan Jowsey.

From the website of Paul Jewers, Oct. 2001, Rosanna Barron was the daughter of Hugh Barron and Lydia Potter. Children of Joseph and Rosanna included Anthony, b. 1834, Yarmouth, NS, d. 18 Apr. 1911, Acton, MA, and Lydia, b. 12 Sept. 1836, Hants Co., d. 20 Mar. 1912, Lawrence, Essex, MA, m. William Munroe (b. 25 Jan. 1857, Halifax).

Joseph Sweet was born about 1810. Joseph and Rosanna Barron were married in 1833 and lived in Hants Co. They had family, including Agnes, Lydia, Anthony, Isabella, William, and Joseph, and perhaps another boy. The children may have stayed in the area of Hants Co. Joseph then married Rachael Jane BEISWENGER (Beiswanger), b. NS, between 1859-1861. Their children were Charles L. Sweet b. abt. 1861 in Halifax, Nelson Maynard Sweet b. 1862 in Newport, Hants Co., George Arthur Sweet, b. 1866, and Ermina Sweet, b. abt. 1869. All three boys went to Michagan, USA by early 1900's. Nelson stayed there and raised a family, Charles disappeared, leaving behind a family and George moved on to Washington State. George married for the first time, Carrie GERMAN. None of them kept in touch. Ermina married William Marr and remained in Canda in the Toronto area where she stayed off and on. At some point, her name became LeBeau. I have not been able to determine whether Joseph and Rachael stayed in Hants Co. I do not find them in MI with the boys. The 1920 USA census of George and his family shows that George's father was born in England and his mother in Canada. However, the 1910 census for Nelson, George's brother, shows Joseph as being born in Canada.

On 20 Nov 1833 when Joseph was 23, he first married Rosanna Barron in St. Pauls Anglican, Rawdon, NS. Born ca 1814.

From Duncanson, "Probably the daughter of Hugh Barron".

Hugh Barron (1772-10 May 1850), probably the son of Alexander Barron. Three of Hugh Barron's daughters married young Irishmen who arrived at Rawdon about 1816 and worked in the Hugh Barron mill.

In 1887 when Ermina was 18, she married William Marr.

4. Susan Sweet (James^l). Born abt 1812. Susan died bef 1851; she was 39.

On 21 Nov 1839 when Susan was 27, she married John Sweet, son of Benoni Sweet (1774-8 Jun 1854) & Margaret Cochran (1782-1872), in Rawdon, NS At St. Pauls. Born on 28 Oct 1807 in Wentworth, Hants Co., NS. John died in Ferndale, California, on 14 Mar 1893; he was 85. Occupation: Proprieter, Sweets Inn, After His Father.

Duncanson reports that John, son of Benoni and Margaret Cochran, married "his first cousin" Susan Sweet. She was a daughter of James Sweet. Thus James, son of Benoni and Lydia Dimock, would be the father of Susan.

According to Joan Jowsey⁴, John and Susan had three children, all born in NS. Susan died and John married Margaret Hunter, daughter of George Henry Hunter and Eliza Fish. They raised a family of 7 more children, all born in NS. John Sweet and his second wife and all the family removed to California, arriving in Humboldt, Feb. 1, 1883. The funeral of John Sweet was held in the church he helped to establish at Grizzly Bluff, CA.

Much information on this family comes from Denis P. Edeline, a descendant of Paul Orman Edeline and Sarah Inez Sweet (Benoni, James, Susan, George William).

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|-----------|------|---|
| 17 | i. | George William (21 Nov 1840-17 Aug 1917) |
| 18 | ii. | John Logan (20 Nov 1844-17 Oct 1914) |
| | iii. | Susan Margaret . Born on 18 Sep 1847. |

5. Wellington Sweet (James^l). Born in 1818 in Rawdon, NS. Wellington died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 1 May 1884; he was 66. Residence: Gore, Nine Mile River, McClure Brook, Truro Hts., NS.

Wellington Sweet, age 16, son of James, is listed in the School Papers for District #5, Rawdon, 1 June 1834. Maria, 13, daughter of James, is also listed.

"Wellington Sweet of this parish (St. Pauls Anglican, Rawdon) and Mary Ann Blois were married in Douglas Church by licence with consent of parents this 7th day of March, 1841."

The marriage of Wellington Sweet and Mary Ann Blois was recorded by Ralph S. Blois in his history of the Blois family. He included the children from the 1871 census, so missed the older ones.

1860 Census, Ward 5, Salem, Massachusetts: Wellington Sweet, Age 36, Farmer, Laborer, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 37, Born New Brunswick, Elizabeth Sweet, Age 19, Factory Operative, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 17, Born Nova Scotia, George Sweet, Age 15, Teamster, Born Nova Scotia, William Sweet, Age 13, Born Nova Scotia, Hiram Sweet, Age 12, Born Nova Scotia, Clarissa Sweet, Age 10, Born Nova Scotia, Harriet Sweet, Age 7, Born Nova Scotia, Sarah Sweet, Age 5, Born Nova Scotia, Adelaide Sweet, Age 3, Born Nova Scotia, Ada Sweet, Age 7/12, Born Massachusetts.

1861 Salem Massachusetts Street Directory Lists: Wellington Sweet, Farmer, House 114 Essex St. There is no listing for Wellington Sweet in the 1859, 1864, 1866, 1869 or 1872 Street Directories, which were the only Directories available for that time period.

The following children were listed in the 1871 census (Truro A 397) with Wellington 50, widower: Clara Amanda

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

19, Harriet 17, Adelaide 15, Ada 11, Wellington Jr. 9, Emma 6, and Eber 5. At Truro B 122, George 23 is listed with Eunice 21, Mary 1, and Hiram b. Dec. 1870. In 1881 (Truro 628), Wellington 57, widower, is with Ada 19, Emma 16, Wellington 15, and Eva (must be Eber) 14.

A letter from Janet (Nix) McDonald, Jan. 20, 1997, suggests "there were other children not included in the 1871 census: Elizabeth Ann, b. 20 Nov. 1841, George Fielding, b. 20 Aug. 1844, William McLane, b. 12 May 1846, Hiram, b. 7 Jan. 1848, and Clarissa, b. 28 Feb. 1850. The births came from "Baptisms - Methodist Shubenacadie Circuit" from Ralph Whittier Collection."

George Sweet's marriage says he was born in Rawdon in 1848. Clara Sweet's death in 1875 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 23 says she was born in St. John in 1852. Harriet Sweet's death in 1873 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 19 says she was born in Shubenacadie in 1854.

From the Presbyterian Witness, 10 May 1884, pg. 152 "Wellington Sweet died 1 May 1884, aged 64, at Truro".

So we have a picture of Wellington and Mary being married in Rawdon in 1841, having children born in Hants Co. from 1841 to 1850, one born in Saint John, NB (at least according to one record) in 1852, further children born in Hants Co. in 1854 and 1856, them being in Salem in 1860, then again in Truro in 1862 to 1866 when the last child was born, and Wellington being a widow by 1871, passing away himself in 1884.

There are some discrepancies in all of the above. First, we have two birth dates for George, one based on his baptism record and Salem census as 1844, another, based on his marriage register and later census records, as 1848. The 1860 census matches the older birthdate. In the Salem records, we have an elder daughter Mary, and a younger daughter Sarah, who hadn't shown up anywhere else. We also have a Clarissa, b. 1850, and a Clara Amanda, b. 1852, but these may be the same daughter. So, in total, likely 13 children, including only one George, one Clara, also a Mary and a Sarah. Joan Jowsey stated that other than George and Elizabeth, we have no knowledge of any of the other children, and don't where they may have scattered to. However, Clara, Harriett and Adelaide died young and Ada, Wellington and Emma have been found in Mass.

On 7 Mar 1841 when Wellington was 23, he married Mary Ann Blois, daughter of William Blois (7 Jul 1790-27 Sep 1854) & Ann M. Fielding (26 Feb 1801-8 Dec 1828), in St. Paul's Anglican, Rawdon, NS. Born in 1824 in Douglas, Hants Co., NS. Mary Ann died bef 1871; she was 47.

Mary Ann Blois' mother, Ann Fielding Blois, died in a chimney fire in Boston when Mary Ann was 4. Her father remarried in Boston a year later, but it is entirely possible that Mary Ann was raised by Fielding relatives. This is suggested on account of the fact that in at least two occasions, informal records, unsubstantiated but nevertheless real, have indicated her to be Mary Fielding, and son George was named George Fielding Swet, suggesting a close connection to the Fielding family.

Note: Death of Wellington Sweet (b. Truro, NS), Feb. 2, 1900, Boston, MA, records parents as Wellington Sweet (b. Annapolis, NS) and Mary Blois (b. NS). NEHGS.

He filed an intent to become a US Citizen in Jackson, MI, Mar. 20, 1896. In 1900, he left Jackson for Texas, leaving his family behind. (Phyllis Evans).

On 17 Nov 1884 when Charles L. was 23, he married Louise Warren in Jackson, Michigan. Louise died in Oct 1953. Buried in Bowling Green, KY.

The following info comes from information from Leonard Sweet who received the info from his first cousin Wilbur Walker, November 13, 1988. "Louise Warren Sweet Pickles was born in Adelaide(?) Australia. While a child her father died and she returned to England with her mother and brother Florence Star Warren 89 days on a sailing ship. Later, while still children they arrived in America and lived in upper New York state where her mother remarried a Holton and ultimately moved to Michigan. Louisa (christened Louisa, according to a family bible, but later adapted to Louise) met in Jackson, MI and married Charles L. Sweet. Their marriage produced 5 children, but when the oldest was about 10 years, Charles Sweet became enamored of a married woman, and left Jackson, Michigan, abandoning his family forever. Louise Sweet, married Samues Pickles and they lived both in Bowling Green, KY where Sama Pickles was involved in a stone quarry and in Jackson, MI. They are both buried in Fairview Cemetery, 1209 Fairview Avenue, Bowling Green KY. Site D-9."

Leonard Sweet continues: "From all indication, Louise and Samuel, were acquainted before they married, possibly through the occupations of both Charles Sweet, a contractor, and Sam Pickles, a supplier of building material, ie, white stone. And in the aftermath of the abandonment by Charles Sweet, Sam Pickles and his first wife, Annie adopted one of the daughters of Charles and Louise Warne Sweet, Violet. Interestingly, after Sam's first wife died, and he married Louise Sweet, Violet and her birth mother were re-united." (Phyllis Evans)

Family of Wellington Sweet (5) & Mary Ann Blois

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

19. Elizabeth Ann Sweet⁵ (Wellington², James¹). Born on 20 Nov 1841 in Rawdon, Hants Co., Nova Scotia. Elizabeth Ann died in Onslow, Nova Scotia, on 28 Jan 1891; she was 49.

The parents of Elizabeth, according to Grace (Groves) Butcher (1972), a granddaughter, were Wellington Sweet and Mary Fielding*. Elizabeth claimed her parents to be Wellington and Elizabeth on her marriage certificate. Grace had her listed as b. Salem, Mass., and she listed herself that way on her marriage certificate in Salem. However, the 1871 and 1881 Nova Scotia census list her as the wife of George Groves, being born in Nova Scotia. She was married in Salem, Mass. Aug. 6, 1861, according to the birth record's of two of her children, Norman and Agnes, as recorded by her. Elizabeth's age on the 1871 and 1881 census data suggest she was b. 1845, which matches the year suggested by her age at death in her daughter Minnie's bible (Jan. 28, 1891, aged 45 years). However, that would mean she was married at age 16. She claimed her age at marriage on her marriage certificate to be 18.

Her family had moved to Salem, MA for a short time between 1856 and 1862. She is recorded with her parents and family in the 1860 census of Salem (age 19 at that time). This is when she would have met George Groves, as they were married in 1861.

Her baptism record suggests she was born 20 Nov. 1841. This, I believe, to be the correct age for Elizabeth, making her 20 when she was married.

Wellington Sweet, the son of James and Elizabeth Sweet of Rawdon, who was married to Mary Ann Blois, dau. of William Blois and Ann Fielding, March 7, 1841, St. Paul's Anglican Church, Rawdon, resided and raised a large family in Truro. Wellington and Mary lived in Truro Heights on the McClure Brook. Their children recorded in the 1871 Nova Scotia census for Truro included George b. 1848 at Rawdon, Clara Amanda b. 1852, Harriet b. 1854, Adelaide b. 1856, Ada b. 1860, Wellington b. 1862, Emma b. 1865, and Eber b. 1866. George Sweet m. 4 Mar 1869 at New Annan to Eunice Wortman. George was a farmer on Young St. in Truro until his death in 1900. They had a family of 13, including Hiram, Agnes, Wesley, and Clara.²

According to Janet (Nix) McDonald, there were other children not listed in the 1871 census, namely Elizabeth Ann, b. 20 Nov. 1841, George Fielding, b. 20 Aug. 1844, William McLane, b. 12 May 1846, Hiram, b. 7 Jan. 1848, and Clarissa, b. 28 Feb., 1850, as recorded in "Baptisms - Methodist Shubenacadie Circuit", from Ralph Whittier collection. This Elizabeth, based on age, parents names, sibling names carried into the next Groves generation(s), and all other evidence, must be the Elizabeth m. to George Groves.

Morning Herald, "Died at Onslow, Jan. 28, 1891, Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet, widow of George Groves of Onslow."

* From: John and Betty Butcher, Did some looking through papers from my mother's house and I honestly can't imagine where she got the information on the Sweet, Fielding connection. The information that you received in 1972/73 was written by Harriet Bell and that came from her mother Minnie. For example, my mother always thought Elizabeth Sweet was born in Salem. Mary Groves went to Salem and found that George and Elizabeth were married there but she was not born there. Both George and Elizabeth died so many years before my mother was born that everything she knew was passed down. Since the notes you received from my mother were written by Harriet I have to believe they were Minnie's memories. Actually all of Hiram's children were born after the death of their grandparents.

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

When Elizabeth Groves died in 1891 at age 49, her husband had already predeceased her two years before and their children's ages were 27, 26, 24, 22, 21, 19, 18, 17, 13 and 4. The younger ones can be found in the 1891 census as follows: Minnie Groves, 18, and Agnes Groves, 13, in the home of Joseph and Mary Snook and 7 children, Truro; Hiram Groves, 19, in the home of Caleb and Susan Lewis, Lower Onslow; Charlie Groves, 21, in the home of Jehiel and Mary Fulton, Lower Onslow; and Clara Groves, 4, in the home of Alonzo and Jane (Groves) Whidden, Lower Onslow, who was her older sister.

The names of James and Mary Groves were listed as parents on the marriage certificate of George and Elizabeth, in Salem, Mass., Aug. 6, 1861. However, her parents were listed as Wellington and Elizabeth, and Wellington's wife was Mary, so it is possible that the mothers' names were switched on this marriage record, and James' wife was in fact Elizabeth. Records of James and Elizabeth Groves with son George have been found in London.

On 6 Aug 1861 when Elizabeth Ann was 19, she married George Groves, son of James Groves (1801-) & Elizabeth (1801-), in Salem, Mass. Born in 1826 in London, England. At the age of <1, George was baptized in Parish Of St. George, Hanover Square, Middlesex Co., England, on 25 Jun 1826. George died in Onslow, Nova Scotia, on 27 Aug 1889; he was 63. Occupation: Sea Captain, Farmer. Residence: Salem, Mass., Maitland, Clifton, Old Barns, Col. Co., NS.

George Groves was born in London, England, according to information from Grace (Groves) Butcher (1972), his granddaughter. England is recorded as his birthplace on 1871 and 1881 Nova Scotia census records. Harold Groves, a grandson, remembered that George was a sea-faring man and was away for long periods, usually bringing home a small keg of olives. He was married in Salem, Mass. in 1861 by Benjamin Knight, Clergyman, at age 35 (according to his age at census and at death, although his marriage certificate says 25). His occupation on his marriage certificate was "mariner", residence Salem. The marriage certificate also says Place of birth of bride and groom was Salem, although this was likely stated to facilitate the marriage, as it is doubtful that Salem, or even the US, was the birthplace of either. His parents were listed as James and Mary. The clerk at Salem City Hall suggested there was so much migration at the time, that few people gave accurate residence, birthplace, or age data. The birthplace of their oldest child, George W., ca 1864, was listed as Maitland on his marriage record. George Groves family was in Old Barns in the 1871 census and in Clifton in the 1881 census. He bought a farm in Onslow sometime in the 1880's. Harold Groves remembered visiting the farm with his father Hiram. George's occupation is listed as either Sea Captain or farmer on the marriage records of his children. His death is recorded in the Morning Herald, "Died at Onslow Aug. 27, 1889, George Groves, aged 63 years." This matches the record in his daughter Minnie's bible.

There is some discrepancy in the birth years of his children. The following birth dates were copied from the Bible of daughter Minnie Bell, from her daughter Harriett: George 1860, Melissa Jane 5-7-1861, Charles Edward 12-8-1863, Harriet Amanda 3-3-1869, Hiram Wesley 9-7-1870, Mary Amelia 2-21-1871, Norman Dexter 1-10-1873, Agnes 2-10-1879, and Clara 3-2-1887. The 1871 census records George age 37, Elizabeth 27, George W. 7, Jane 5, Charles E. 4, Harriet 3, Hiram 6 mos. The 1881 census records George 46, Elizabeth 36, George 16, Jane 15, Charles 12, Harriet 11, Hiram 9, Minnie 7, Norman 5, and Agnes 3. The ages listed on marriage records for the children seem to match the bible ages better than the census ages, except for the older children, George, Jane, and Charles. In those cases, the ages on marriage records seem to match better with the 1871 census ages.

George and Elizabeth Groves are probably buried in Onslow, although no headstone exists, or has ever been found in any other cemeteries in the area.

They had the following children⁶:

Kenneth H. Simmons, 77, Bonney Lake's mayor from the day it incorporated in 1949 until the late 1960'. died Sunday. Born in Tacoma, Mr. Simmons had resided in Milton for 41 years, serving many of those years as that city's mayor. He had resided at 18207 74th St. E., Bonney Lake for 36 years. A three-term state legislator from the 25th district, Mr. Simmons was the driving force in Bonney Lake's incorporation after purchasing a large parcel of property there in 1947. The area, however, needed a fresh-water supply system, and Mr. Simmons fought for the water system soon after Bonney Lake was incorporated by launching a revenue bond issue. Mr. Simmons gained national attention in the 1930's when he filed the name of Boston Curtis as a Republican precinct committeeman for the 25th district. It was discovered after Boston Curtis was elected that the individual was a mule--a humorous stunt which later became known as the "donkey incident." Mr. Simmons, a retired real estate broker, continued throughout his lengthy political career to promote the town of Bonney Lake, continually pressing for new developments and improvements for the city. He was active in the Pierce County Democratic Party, was past president of the Puyallup Eagles Lodge and was past master of the Sumner Grange. He also was a member of First Baptist Church of Tacoma. Survivors include his wife, Bertha, two sons, Richard in Guatemala, and Ronald of Tacoma; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

They had one child:

- i. Phyllis Shirley (Simmons) Ceratto. Born on 17 Jun 1926 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., Washington. Phyllis Shirley (Simmons) died in Bellingham, Whatcom Co., WA, on 14 Jan 2024; she was 97.

The Fabric of her Life, Feb. 24, 2004, Kitsap Sun (Bremerton, WA). As the morning sunlight drifts through the window of Phyllis Ceratto Evans' Poulsbo studio, it illuminates the fabric of fragile vintage silk kimonos. Here and there sections of the kimonos are missing. Eventually, they all will disappear under Evans' deft touch as she turns them into her unusual fiber art collages. Her original art pieces are made entirely of snippets of these kimonos, protected with Scotchgard, then framed. Photos she's taken abroad serve as the inspiration for her work. Her father was from the Italian Alps and she backpacked there -- solo -- in 1989. But it was on a later backpacking trip that she became fascinated with the small fishing villages found along the Adriatic and Mediterranean seas. Some of her best collages reflect the soft, muted pastel colors found on the exterior of the houses and buildings of these old villages. And she has captured the essence of the people making their living from the sea in much the same way that they have for centuries. One large village piece, "Comoglia," was created from more than 300 colors, not one from the same kimono. And, she says, she never makes any of the houses the same color in a collage, not even the white ones. Each collage is unique, although she has had lithographs made of some of the originals. Sometimes she traces pieces from her original photograph to get them exactly right, but much of her work is done free hand. She sorts through her extensive kimono collection to find just the right color and texture for each little building, boat, person or background. Her work is incredibly detailed. Sometimes she will just use a sliver or two of a color to create a certain shading or effect. A crack in a street or wisp of a cloud can be created from pieces so tiny they are only two threads wide. She cuts each piece of kimono fabric individually. Dry glue is applied to it, then the piece is pinned to the canvas. A heat fusion is created by pressing the scraps of fabric with an iron. "It's just like paint by numbers," she says. Sometimes she will use only shades of white, gray and black, such as one of her earliest works -- "Il Barco Rifiuto" -- the garbage barge. The barge glides through an eerie dark back canal in Venice and the scene is a starkly realistic portrayal of the real thing. Originally, she was able to purchase many of her kimonos from a Hawaiian family who had access to them in Japan. She purchased them by the bale with 150 to 180 kimonos to the bale and she never received a duplication. "The old Japanese families used to believe that the kimono of a person would continue to hold their spirit after they died so the family felt their kimono shouldn't be worn again by someone else," says Evans. But these no longer are available to her. Evans has been featured in exhibitions all over the Northwest, winning numerous awards for her work. A native of the Pacific Northwest, she moved to Kitsap County in 1986. The next year she retired from Montessori School teaching and began devoting most of her creative energy to art. Her work currently is for sale at Roby-King Gallery on Bainbridge Island and she is available to do original commission work, but only of scenes of her choosing. "I can't draw at all," she says with a laugh.

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

Phyllis Ceratto Evans, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend of many, passed away on January 14, 2024 at the age of 97 at her home near Bellingham, Washington. She was born on June 17, 1926, in Tacoma, Washington. Her parents were George and Mildred Ceratto. Phyllis proudly told anyone and everyone she had grown up in Tacoma in the same neighborhood where her mother had grown up and liked to recall that her 2nd grade teacher often called her by her mother's name, since she and her mother had both attended Bryant Elementary in Tacoma and had the same teacher. Phyllis also spoke of enjoying going to baseball games as a child with her grandfather. She liked to tell her own children that her grandparents' home was one of many homes relocated in order to build Interstate 5. Phyllis attended Bryant Elementary and Stadium High School, both in Tacoma and graduated from St. Alphonsus Parish School in Seattle. After Phyllis got married, she moved to Moclips, Washington where they lived by the beach and her 3 youngest children attended school. They moved to Hoquiam where she was divorced and raised her children on her own until marrying Bob J. Evans in 1964. They bought a home in Aberdeen and had one more child. Phyllis lived and worked in Aberdeen for 20 plus years. Since her parents had owned restaurants, Phyllis worked in the food service industry for many years then became a teacher's aid in the early 1970s. Phyllis found her true calling in teaching children to read and worked in early childhood education for the remainder of her working years until she retired. She was a teacher's aide in the Aberdeen School District and in the late 1980s, after her husband's death, she moved to Bainbridge Island and worked at the Montessori Country School. All of her life, Phyllis loved the outdoors and especially camping and hiking. She was in her 60s when she embarked on longer, solo hikes beginning on the Olympic Peninsula and eventually hiking in Switzerland and around Mount Blanc and then in the early 1990s she solo hiked the 93-mile Wonderland Trail around Mt. Rainier. She also traversed the Olympic Mountains twice with her son Wally, via both the Low and High Divide routes. Phyllis saw so much beauty in her hikes that she combined her love for nature and hiking with her passion for sewing and fiber arts by creating beautiful fiber collages using antique silk from discarded kimono fabric. Her artwork was exhibited in various galleries and in corporate displays, and she sold many pieces of her art over the years. In 2010 Phyllis left the Olympic Peninsula and moved to Bellingham to a fun, senior community, to be closer to her youngest grandchildren. Phyllis always had a love for travel and besides years of camping, her travels included several visits to Northern Italy to visit relatives, and also trips to a variety of other places including Machu Pichu, a Caribbean Cruise and travels to Minnesota and Nova Scotia for genealogy research. She embarked on day or overnight bus trips once she moved to Bellingham, because she still loved to travel. Phyllis's booming laugh could always be heard in crowded rooms or at parties, because she was usually having fun and loved talking to anyone and everyone. She was barely ever sick and as she slowed down in her late 90s, her doctors and caregivers were always so surprised to hear she took zero medications. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Phyllis is survived by her four children: William (Bill) Hampton, Wally Hampton (and wife Wendy), Janice Hampton, and Lita Evans DeBoer (and husband Walter), along with 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob J. Evans, her granddaughter Kandice Hampton Nickerson, and her brother Robert Ceratto.

Hi Doug:

I have a bit more information about George Sweet. I think it would be the son George born in 1879. Alfred Dickie

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

(Dickie Lumber Company) took a crew from Colchester County to Labrador aboard the S. S. Perkin, the first crew, to Mud Lake to work in the lumber woods. An article appeared in the Truro Daily News on September 9, 1902 saying the steamer S. S. Pekin had been wrecked off the coast of Labrador. (It wasn't wrecked but had gone aground at Harrington Harbour.) The article ends with: "A number of Truro people are aboard: Jerry Sherlock, George Sweet, Jack Fenton, Ephriam Fenton and Frank Robinson." We are looking for the list of all passengers Our grandfather, Corey Taylor, and two others walked out of there 700 miles along the coast in the winter of 1903. He kept a diary and referred to one man as Fred and doesn't name the other. We are trying to find the missing link.

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

My great grandfather's name was Samuel "Burton" Sweet born in Kings County at Canada Creek. His wife was Alice Eaton from King County also. They moved to Goldenville, Guysborough County where they had about 10 children. Some of Burton's family were named: Charles, James, Bertha, Edwin, Alma, Ralph - who died in the 1st World War and is buried in Truro, maybe a connection there - and Goldie. One, Stubbart, was my grandfather. Burton's father was Leander Sweet. Their eldest son Rufus had many children who moved to the states. Some of Rufus' children are Victor, Prudence, Adelle, Zylpha, Alice and Caroline. Also, their son Edwin or an uncle named Edwin Saunders Sweet (families repeat names so many times) lived in Madison New York and are on the 1922 census. I believe there was lots of family living in the States when they moved there.

On 8 Jul 1907 when Ralph Emerson was 20, he married Agnes Jane Murray, daughter of William Murray (1851-) & Mary (1857-), in Brunswick St., Truro. Born in 1886 in Earltown, NS. Agnes Jane died in New Westminster, BC, on 7 Apr 1971; she was 85.

On 24 Dec 1924 when Sadie Florence was 22, she married Arthur E. Armsworthy in Truro, NS. Born on 2 Mar 1897 in Canso, Guysborough Co., NS. Arthur E. died in Truro, NS, on 12 Sep 1955; he was 58.

Arthur Ellsworth Armsworthy was born on March 2, 1897, in Canso, NS, the oldest of seven children raised by William and Hannah Armsworthy. His father would also serve overseas during the First World War. Arthur spent his early years in Canso before moving with his family to Belmont, Colchester County at the age of 12. He spent his early adolescence working on the family farm before leaving the tranquility of rural Nova Scotia for the excitement - and danger - of the distant "great war". On Christmas Eve 1915, Arthur enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Thus began a three year journey during which Arthur would participate in several of World War I's most significant events.

Before departing for overseas duty, Arthur completed a will, dated July 12, 1916, bequeathing all real and personal property to his mother. Three days later, he boarded the SS Empress of Britain in Halifax, along with the other members of the 106th Battalion, Nova Scotia Rifles, for the perilous journey across the North Atlantic. On July 25, the ship safely docked in Liverpool, England, where the regiment continued to train in preparation for deployment in Europe.

On September 27, 1916, Arthur was transferred to the 26th Battalion (New Brunswick Regiment), the unit which he would receive all of his combat experience. When he reached the 26th in northern France on October 13, the battalion was on the move. As part of the 2nd Canadian Division, it has fought in the Battle of the Somme, which commenced on July 1 and lasted into November 1916. The first major Allied offensive of the war, its purpose was to break the stalemate in northern France.

By autumn, it was clear that the Somme offensive had failed. In the two weeks before Arthur's arrival, the 26th participated in two unsuccessful attacks on a section of the German lines known as "Regina Trench", near Courcelette, France. Relieved of front line duty in mid-October, the regiment was reassigned to a "quieter" section of the front lines between Arras and Lens, leaving a final, successful assault on the German position to the men of the 4th Canadian Division.

While the battalion's relocation brought welcome relief from the bloody combat of the Somme, their new location soon became the focus of another major Allied offensive. In the spring of 1917, Allied commanders developed plans for an assault in the Arras sector. The Canadian Corps was given the task of capturing the most well fortified German position, an area of high ground known as Vimy Ridge.

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

Throughout the spring, Canadian soldiers trained for an assault scheduled for early April. The 26th Battalion war diary describes the men "practicing over tape trenches", a model of the ridge - complete with markings indicating the location of German defences - laid out in fields behind the front lines. On April 7, training ceased and the men prepared to leave for the front trenches. The following day - Easter Sunday - Arthur and the men of the 26th were issued rations and supplies in preparation for battle, and by evening had moved into position in the "jumping off trench" assigned to their unit.

At 5:30 am Monday, April 9, the Allied artillery opened its barrage of the German front lines. Arthur and the men of the 26th Battalion went "over the top", advancing up the ridge toward the German front lines. Executing the "Vimy walk" they had so carefully rehearsed, they followed the artillery barrage as it "rolled" across the battlefield, trapping the enemy soldiers in their bunkers until the Canadians reached the German front lines. The battalion's war diary observed that "casualties in the attack were slight". Arthur, however, was among the wounded, struck in the right arm by a bullet as the battalion advanced toward the German front lines.

After receiving initial treatment at the 26th Battalion Field Clearing Hospital, Arthur was sent to England on April 14, arriving at the Clearing Hospital in Eastleigh, Hampshire the following day. After a stay of eight days, he was moved to the Fulham Military Hospital, St. Dunstan's Rd., London, where he spent a month recovering from his wounds. On May 25, 1917, medical records indicate that Arthur was discharged from the military hospital and sent to the Canadian Convalescent Hospital, Bromley, Kent for further rehabilitation.

On May 31, 1917, Arthur was discharged to the Canadian Convalescent Depot, where he spent an additional ten weeks recuperating before being assigned to the 13th Reserve Depot. He would pass the next twelve months in England with the 13th and the New Brunswick Regimental Depot, before returning to active duty with the 26th Battalion on August 22, 1918. Arthur proceeded to France the following day, rejoining the battalion in the field on August 28.

By this time, the war was entering a new phase. A major German spring offensive had been repelled, and Allied forces launched a successful counter-attack at Amiens in early August. By the end of the month, Canadian regiments were moving into position for a new assault on German positions in the Arras-Cambrai region. When Arthur arrived at the front, the 26th was once again on the move to Raillencourt, near Cambrai. After several weeks of rest and training in reserve, the battalion returned to the front lines on September 19.

In early October, the battalion prepared for a major attack on the German positions at Cambrai. Arthur and his comrades moved into position on October 8, and the attack was launched the following day. The battalion's war diary noted that a 5:30 pm advance was "held up by machine gun fire" that resulted in 4 fatalities and 78 wounded. Arthur was among the casualties, sustaining wounds to his neck, left thigh and left ankle.

Once again, Arthur was evacuated to England and admitted to the Barry Road Primary Military Hospital, Northampton on October 12. One month later, he heard the news of the armistice that ended the war at 11 am November 11, 1918 while being treated at Barry Road. On November 16, he was transferred to a regional hospital where he continued to recuperate and was discharged to a military convalescent home in Epsom on December 4. Two days before Christmas 1918, Arthur was released from hospital and placed in the 13th Reserve Battalion, where he spent the remainder of his time overseas.

On February 22, 1919, Arthur boarded the SS Belgic for the return voyage to Canada, arriving in Halifax on March 2, 1919 - his twenty-second birthday. He was discharged from the Canadian Expeditionary Force on March 22 and returned to the community of Belmont, Colchester County. In recognition of his military service in Europe, Arthur was awarded the British War Medal and Victory Medal.

Returning to civilian life, Arthur married Sadie Florence Brunt on December 24, 1924. They raised fourteen children on their farm in Belmont, until Arthur's deteriorating health led to their relocation to nearby Truro in the early 1950s. Arthur Ellsworth Armsworthy passed away on September 12, 1955, as a result of complications related to heart disease, and is buried in Belmont, NS.. He had participated in several of World War I's most significant events and twice recovered from severe wounds, a remarkable story of adventure for a young man whose life story began in Canso, Nova Scotia.

Greg liked to spend time in the outdoors, gardening, fishing, hunting or just a walk in the woods were favorite pastimes. A trek through nature had Greg exclaiming, "That's the most beautiful thing I ever saw" on more than one occasion. He savored the beauty nature had to offer. Never one to shy from a challenge, Greg could be found building a fiddle or guitar one day and belting out "Wildwood Flower" the next. Norma Lois Pyke (Hatt)

It is with extreme sadness that we announce the passing of a truly amazing woman, Norma Lois Pyke (Hatt). Norma passed away at the Colchester East Hants Health Centre on April 13, 2020, just 4 months shy of her 91st Birthday. Norma was born on August 13, 1929, in a place known years ago as, "Little Hollywood", Willow Street, Truro. She was the eldest and only daughter of four children born to Marvin Russell Hatt and Clara Mae Hatt (Murray). In her younger years, Norma worked at Lewis' Hatt Factory and spent some time in Ontario. Back in Truro she met and married her husband of almost 68 years, Donald Earl Pyke of Valley Station, and they had six children; 4 boys and 2 girls. Donald still resides at the homestead and it feels like home to the many who visit. Norma became a full time homemaker and never got to spend too much time idle until later years. With 6 kids and Scouts, Cubs, Girl Guides, Brownies, piano lessons, homework, school projects, volunteering and all round house chores. She was amazing with it all. She was a life time member of the Valley (UCW) United Church Women's Group, she belonged to the Rebecca Lodge and in later years she joined the (RHGNS) Rug Hookers Guild of Nova Scotia; where she learned to hook rugs and mats and loved to do many projects like doing mats of favorite Maude Lewis pictures, birds and many other pictures. Norma also loved to read, draw, tole paint and travel, she was an outgoing person and quite an artist. Norma was known to me as mom; she loved to spend time by the Ocean; whether it was visiting relatives in Pleasant Bay, Cape Breton, overlooking the ocean, renting beach front cottages on our summer vacations or camping at our relatives cottage at Seafoam Wharf. In 1986, mom and dad bought a plot of land right on the Bay of Fundy in Five Houses Road, in Portapique area and built a cottage there. Until, the last couple years, most of mom's summers were spent there with family, friends, kids, grand kids, and great grand kids. Mom was a lover of all things beautiful, flowers, birds and just spending time in the outdoors watching the humming birds flit around. Mom lived for her family and was loved by all who met her. She was known by many names, but most of all "GRAM", she was Gram to so many people, related and not related. The house was always open to family and visitors at any time.

Norma is survived by her husband, Donald E. Pyke, Valley; five children, Darrel Pyke (Susan), Fredericton, NB, Doug Pyke, Valley, Randy Pyke (Angie), Salmon River, David Pyke, Valley, and Sherry Heron (Steve), Valley. Thirteen grandchildren, Jared Thompson, Tylor Pyke, Christina Pyke, Jaden Pyke, Dougie Pyke, Melinda Pyke, Lenny Pyke, Matthew Pyke, Micheal Custance, Corey Toole, Katie Toole, Alex Toole and TJ Toole. Also nine great grandchildren, Ivyanna, Avery, Jorja, Jackson, Chase, Hunter, Myla, Tucker and Jensen. Norma has three surviving brothers; Donnie Hatt (Doreen), Salmon River, Stanley Hatt, London, Ontario and Gary Hatt, Onslow; many nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. Norma is predeceased by her daughter, Dianne Elaine Pyke.

I have been trying to do justice to my mom in this obituary, but no amount of words could describe the truly beautiful nature and love of this amazing woman. I'm sorry for things I may have forgotten.

Mom will be forever missed for her kindness, generosity and unconditional love.
Love and miss you so much, every minute of every day.
